Swift Senate Approval for Seaton Seen

Eisenhower's Choice To Replace McKay Jolts Davis Backers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Swift Senate confirmation appeared assured today for Fred A Seaton to be secretary of the interior in President Eisenhower s Cabinet

Seaton, a 46-year old Nebraska newspaper and radio executive has been on the White House staff as deputy assistant to Eisenhower in charge of administrative af fairs

Surprise to Westerners

His selection for the Cabinet post, announced by the White House late Monday occasioned some surprise, Fourteen Western Republican senators had publicly backed Undersecretary of the Interior Clarence A Davis to succeed Douglas McKay McKay resigned April 15 to run for the Senate against Sen Morse (D Ore)

Morse's colleague Sen Neuberger (D-Ore), contended that Eisenhower had "repudiated the policies of ex Secretary McKay" by going outside ' the discredited Interior Department to obtain a new head "

McKay's Comment

At Portland McKay said

"Fred Seaton has earned the full confidence of the President as a valued member of the White House staff He is already intimately familiar with the objec tives and policies of the adminis tration and can continue these policies in the Department of the Interior without interruption He has my congratulations and best wishes "

Seaton, who described his appointment as a surprise, said he favors what Eisenhower terms a partnership policy under which local, private and public interests join with the federal government in hydroelectric power projects.

Silent on McKay

Asked specifically if he intends to carry on McKay s policies in the Interior Department, Seaton replied

I can t speak specifically to that But, so far as the Eisenhower power policy and water policy are concerned I plan to carry them on That includes partnership — I think it makes sense and progress '

Many Democrats have criticized administration power policies as being unduly favorable to private utilities

Chairman Murray (D Mont) of the Interior Committee which will pass upon the appointment, lauded Seaton as "a fine, fair gentleman" and said he sees no present need to hold hearings on the nomination

Seaton served in the Senate by appointment for about a year in 1951-52 He did not seek election

Lausche's Name To Be Placed in Nomination

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — Gov Frank J Lausche has insisted his chances are "nill ' for the presi dential nomination But, nevertheless, he said Monday his name will be placed in nomination at the Democratic national convention in Chicago this August.

The five term governor, who has received some national attention as a dark horse possibility for a spot on the national ticket confirmed that he will attend the convention

As Ohio Democrats' "favorite son" he has 54 of the state's 58 convention votes pledged to him

There will be no meeting of delegates before the convention, Lausche said

Only Twining Invited

Soviet Bid Ignores Three Joint Chiefs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Moscow has ignored a broad hint from Wash ington hat it would welcome an invitation to the Joint Chiefs of Staff to visit Russia

The Russians did send a formal invitation to one of the Joint Chiefs, Air Force Gen Nathan F Twining, to attend Soviet Aviation Day ceremonies in Moscow June 24 Announcing receipt of the in vitation Monday night, the Air Force said it is under consideration

Joint Chiefs Interested

When word of th s forthcoming invitation got out last Thursday, both the Pentagon and the White House hinted strongly that the Joint Chiefs of Staff would accept if they were invited to Russia They include the chiefs of staff of the Army, Navy and Air Force and a chairman, Adm Arthur W Radford

When the formal invitation was delivered by Soviet Embassy aides Monday, however it did not cover all the Joints Chiefs, but only Twining

The New York Herald Tribune, in a Washington dispatch, said today President Eisenhower had conferred with Twining and others and 'decided in principle that the invitation would be accepted

Conference Due Today

Whether to regard the omission of the other chiefs of staff as a rebuff was a likely topic for discussion at a White House gathering today of eight advisers to the administration from private life Although their field is primarily disarmament, they are expected to touch on many phases of US-Russian relations

The eight men reviewed the proposals which Harold E Stassen, Eisenhower's disarmament specialist, took to the recently concluded London talks on disarmament

Stassen has said the eight men today would "analyze the implications" of Russia's announced plan to make a 1 200 000 man reduction in its armed forces He said they also would study the seven-week disarmament negotiations which ended in a deadlock

Holiday Signal--Slow Down and Live

Huge Safety Drive Opens in U.S. on Memorial Day

Memorial Day, which traditionally marks the beginning of summer vacation, this year will signal also the start of an intensive "slow down and live ' traffic safety campaign

Enforcement officials and safety experts the nation over will emphasize both law enforcement and an appeal for an alerted public responsibility in the period from Memorial Day to Labor Day when vacation and holiday travel place the greatest load on streets and highways

"Ohio will launch its 'slow down and live' campaign with the most vigorous program possible," said U C Feity, campaign coordinator and director of the State Department of Highway Safety.

He added that every corner of the state will be spotlighted in an appeal to sell safety to Ohio motorists to cut the traffic toll which he said is slated to take 550 lives this summer, "unless motorists accept the slow down and live idea "

Records show that last Memorial Day weekend, a record of 372 persons lost their lives But safety experts, noting the holiday this year is in midweek, are hopeful there will be fewer collisions and fewer cars on the road to become involved in them

Active support in the Ohio campaign is expected from mayors, chiefs of police, sheriffs, the state highway patrol judges of juvenile municipal and common pleas courts, county prosecutors, state

(Turn to SLOW DOWN, Pag 10)

POSTERS AND BUMPER STICKERS reminding Ohioans to 'Slow Down and Live' will appear throughout the state between Memorial Day and Labor Day Shown here examining replicas of the two reminders are (left to right) Marion Police Sgt John Richardson and State Highway Patrolman L D Alexander of the Marion post The State Department of Highway Safety has asked all law enforcement agencies to enforce all traffic laws, particularly the speed laws, as a part of the 'Slow Down and Live' campaign.

Deputy Halts Car, Is Shot; Bandit Flees

Swerves To Escape Roadblock, Hits Girl Guiding Blind Person

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A gunman killed a deputy sheriff at the end of a wild chase along Ohio 2 today, sped away a second time and killed a pedestrian before being captured

Deputy Sheriff Ray Westover, 35 father of three children was fatally shot by one of three men he had halted because of an alert from the state highway patrol

Breaks Away

Police said John Bowens, 35 of Brooklyn, N Y, then broke away from Westover and state Patrolman Robert Newell and continued the flight

As Bowens swerved to avoid a road block in front of St Charles Hospital, his car struck and killed Ann Marie Martin, 19, an X-ray student at the hospital

She had been leading a blind man across the street, and he was seriously injured He was Jay Francis, who also worked at the hospital

Bowens' two companions in the first chase were identified as Walter Bryant, 32 of New York City, and Phillip Powell 24 of Philadelphia Detectives said the three men admitted they were using a stolen car

At the roadblock Patrolmen Alvin Szajkowski and Daniel Myslewiec overpowered Bowens, who still was armed

Had Enough

They quoted him as saying, "I could have splattered you all over the place but I already killed one man, and I thought I had enough "

Highway Patrolman Newell was the first to spot the three men headed west toward Toledo on Ohio 2 He said they were traveling at such a speed that at 110 miles an hour he could not gain on them

He sent a radio message, and Westover who was about to make his morning run as an escort for a school bus put his patrol car across the highway.

Fires Point Blank

Newell said that when he came on the scene Westover had the three men outside the car with their hands up As both officers began to search them for weapons Bowens lunged into the car grabbed a Luger pistol, and fired point blank at Westover

Deputy Sheriff Joseph Haines arrived as Newell and the gunman were circling the car, and Bowens jumped into the auto and fled Haines pursued the car and Newell guarded the two remaining men with the help of a truck driver who had volunteered his aid

City's Zoning Rules Under Fire in Council

A proposal that Marion City Council and the city planning commission hold joint meetings to determine exactly where the residential, commercial and industrial zones are to be in the city was tentatively approved by council at its meeting Monday night

The decision was the outcome of a number of discussions on seven resolutions to grant permission to operate businesses in residential zones and another to change the zoning of a property on Davids St

During the discussions on the various pieces of legislation, John Courtright Jr, councilman - at - large said he felt that the city planning commission was 'remiss in its duties' in not coming before council with recommendations as to what areas in the city are to be designated henceforth as residential commercial or industrial zones

Stevenson Given Thin Edge

Adlai, Kefauver Testing Strength in Florida Vote

By The Associated Press

Florida voters choose between Adlai Stevenson and Sen Estes Kefauver for the Democratic presidential nomination today in a major test of the political strength of the two increasingly bitter rivals

Both already were looking ahead to their final clash in the California primary election a week from today—a winner take all contest involving 68 votes in the national convention

In Missouri the Democratic State Convention gave enthusiastic endorsement to Sen Stuart Symington—regarded by many as having a good chance for the Democratic nomination in case of a national convention 'deadlock between Kefauver and Stevenson.

Token Opposition

In today s Florida voting President Eisenhower faces only nominal opposition on the Republican side of the primary But supporters of Stevenson and Kefauver saw their race as a major hurdle

Florida s 28 Democratic convention votes will be apportioned on the basis of 12 convention votes to the biggest vote getter plus two delegates each with one full vote for each of th eight congressional districts carried

Voters can't switch parties in the primary voting in Florida, but many with Republican leanings are registered as Democrats in order to have some voice in the political affairs of the Democratic state

Many Vote for Kefauver

There was speculation that many of these Republicans, plus Eisenhower Democrats might vote for Kefauver in hopes of killing off Stevenson—whom most observers gave a slight edge

Stevenson got last-minute endorsement from the Miami Daily News Monday The News said that "as Florida votes . so California may vote The outcome of these two primary elections may determine which of the two candidates is the stronger when the convention opens "

In California, backers of the two rivals traded blistering charges

A Stevenson supporter, Democratic National Committeeman Paul Ziffren, said, "Kefauver is desperate because he knows he is through and he is out to destroy Stevenson even if that won't help Kefauver "

Kefauver Charges

Kefauver s California manager Thomas Carrell said, "Chicago boys have poured money in here and are trying to take over California " Stevenson is a former governor of Illinois

The California fight appeared likely to be a bitter one, revolving principally around the issues of civil rights and social welfare Stevenson already has begun the windup week of campaigning Kefauver arranged to return to California after a last-minute tour of the Miami area Monday.

Back Symington

The Missouri convention endorsing Symington gave him what was regarded as far stronger backing than the ordinary "favorite son" designation

The convention adopted a resolution saying the state's 38 convention votes would continue to be cast for Symington until a majority of the delegates determines he is no longer available for nomination, or until he releases it

Supplemental Jobless Pay Is Ruled Taxable

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Government ruled today that idle workers must pay federal income tax on new supplementary unemployment benefits

Russell C Harrington, internal revenue commissioner, ruled however that the benefits, due to be started June 1 by major auto producers, are not to be treated as wages subject either to withholding or social security taxes

The ruling means that unemployed workers will receive their privately financed 'sub" payments supplementing their state unemployment compensation (UC) benefits, in full without being reduced by various withholding taxes But the employe will have to report them as non wage income on his annual return

Ike Signs Farm Bill Into Law

Benson Moves To Put Soil Bank in Operation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration moved today to put the new farm law into effect but it may be days before farmers will know what benefits they can expect from it this year

President Eisenhower signed the measure late Monday saying that it had shortcomings but that its advantages outweighed its harmful provisions "

Thus ended more than a year of maneuvering between his administration and the Democratic leadership of Congress, with some Republican backing, over new farm legislation

$1 Billion Soil Bank

The law carries provisions for a $1 200,000 000-a year soil bank program, but just how much of the money may be made available this crop year is a matter which will be determined by decisions to be made by Secretary of Agriculture Benson

Benson, who said he was glad Eisenhower approved the measure, said his department is proceeding with judicious haste to put the soil bank plan into effect this year Under this program farmers will be offered payments for taking land out of production of surplus crops

No Fair Test in '56

The new law is the second farm measure passed by Congress this year The first one was vetoed by Eisenhower April 16 because it carried provisions which would have raised price supports of some crops and products above levels favored by the administration

Benson said in a statement Monday night that this year will not provide 'a fair test" of the soil bank because practically all crops have been planted Eisenhower expressed regret that the soil bank had not been enacted earlier.

Cincinnatian Held in Son's Fatal Shooting

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say a two-day-old quarrel between a father and his son over use of an automobile they owned jointly resulted last night in the fatal shooting of the son.

Officers said Charles Miller Jr., 23, was shot to death as he scuffled with his father, Charles Sr., 49, over a gun which the father said he had fired once into the floor. The shooting occurred in the elder Miller's home, next door to a bait and sporting goods shop he and his son operated in suburban Reading.

Reading police ordered the father held without charge pending a further investigation.

Reading Patrolmen Fred Arthur and Fred Engelman said the father wept as he told them he and his son had quarreled two days about the automobile. He said his son then quit the bait shop Monday but returned last night to get money due him.

The quarrel started again and police said they were told the elder Miller ordered his son out of the house and then went into the store. He returned a few minutes later with a gun, the officers said.

Police said the father kept repeating, "What made me do it? Lord knows I didn't mean to kill him. Why didn't he kill me?"

In two separate affidavit, Dallas Scott, also of Upper Sandusky, was charged in one with selling, furnishing or giving away intoxicating liquors including malt beverage and whiskey, and in the other affidavit he was charged with selling intoxicating liquor including malt beverages and whiskey to a state investigator without a license.

Each was cited to appear in the court of Mayor J. Craig Bowman Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock to answer to the charges. All were released without bond pending the hearing.

Freeze on Hard Liquor Permits in Ohio Is Nullified

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's freeze of hard liquor permits apparently ends at midnight tonight, Liquor Director William C. Bryant says.

His department's modified freeze, which was to have gone into effect last midnight, was put off indefinitely when 40 carryout permit holders appealed from the regulation in Franklin County Common Pleas Court.

The suit means that the freeze on beer, wine and carryout permits will remain—at least temporarily. Virtually unlimited issuance of such permits would have been allowed under the modified freeze regulation.

Under the modified freeze, the director said, some 3,000 new hard liquor permits might have been issued. Without it, he estimated, as many as 6,000 could be added to the 8,000 now in existence.

The Ohio Supreme Court recently knocked out the original 1949 freeze, saying that permit quotas failed to allow for population changes.

Identical Names Puzzle N. Carolina Democrats

LILLINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Harnett County Democrats have a reason for scratching their heads over which Robert B. Morgan is which.

The newly elected county judge is Robert B. Morgan. So is the county's state senator.

The two are not related, but both are Lillington lawyers and both are Wake Forest College graduates. To add to the confusion the wife of each is named Alice and each has a sister named Lucille.

Monday the senator still was receiving congratulations on the judge's victory in last Saturday's Democratic primary.

Sheriff Resigns

LONDON, Ohio (AP)—They're having a hard time keeping a sheriff in Madison County.

Another sheriff must be appointed to serve until January. A new sheriff will be elected in November.

NEW YORK (AP)—Ohio's treasurer, Roger W. Tracy, was on his way home today with a check for $49,066,732 to pay for some of the new roads the Buckeye state is building this year.

The check was handed Tracy after a ceremony witnessed by Ohio Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. It came from a 50-million-dollar issue of Ohio's major thoroughfare construction bonds sold at competitive bidding recently.

The check was presented to Tracy by Thomas B. MacDonald, assistantt reasurer of Blyth Co., manager of the underwriting syndicate which bought the bonds. The bonds represented the third installment of a total 500-million-dollar authorization approved by Ohio voters in 1953.

Accidental Pistol Shot Grazes Mary Pickford

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mary Pickford, sweetheart of the silent screen, has disclosed that a bullet grazed her head when a pistol was accidentally discharged on her estate.

The former actress made light of an incident she said took place Saturday night as she and her husband, producer Buddy Rogers, were returning home with Marion Davies and the latter's husband, Capt. Horace Brown.

Miss Pickford said Monday that Brown, formerly of the Merchant Marine, was showing his pistol to Rogers when he slipped in a spot of oil in the driveway.

The gun discharged, she reported, and the bullet ricocheted from the driveway to her forehead. Dr. Eliot Corday said he treated Miss Pickford for a slight abrasion.

46-Day Strike Of Sewer Pipe Workers Ends

DENNISON, Ohio (AP)—Some 4,200 workers were returning to their jobs at sewer pipe plants in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana today following the end of a 56-day strike.

Clyde Myers, business agent of the United Brick and Clay Workers union, said 17 of the 26 union locals voted Monday to accept a new two-year contract. He added that workers in the nine locals rejecting the pact would return to work today with those approving it.

The contract provides for wage increases of eight cents an hour for each of the two years. It also calls for four paid holidays this year with two more next year; a third week of vacation for workers with 15 years' seniority, and continuation of a $25 year - end bonus.

Present wage scales were not announced.

The union had sought a wage increase of 27 cents an hour, six paid holidays a year and three weeks vacation. Employers had held out for a three-year contract.

Postmaster Fails To Find 'Mickey' At Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich (AP) — Postmaster H. Wayne Parker still hasn't located "Mickey," who wrote a touching letter to "Mommy, care of God, Heaven," but stacks of mail and at least one $25 check are waiting.

Mickey's unstamped letter found its way to Parker's desk May 17. News reports of the letter touched off a flood of answering mail. A check came for "Mickey" Monday from a banker in Elmore City, Okla., who said: "This little girl must not lose her faith."

"Mickey's letter bore no return address or last name.

The letter said:

"Dear Mommy, I miss you very much since you went to live with God. I hope you're happy. I'm lonesome without you and Daddy since you have gone away. Please tell God to help me be good so I can come to heaven by you. Love, your baby girl, Mickey."

Around City Council's Table

Marion City Council adopted 14 pieces of legislation, tabled one, sent two to committee for further study and discussed other items of business at its regular meeting Monday night.

Billing Bids Sought

Adopted unanimously and without comment was an ordinance authorizing the safety-service director to advertise for bids for a one-year contract to provide services in billing the newly enacted sewer service charge to city residents.

The proposed ordinance sets up a list of 12 duties to be performed by the successful bidder. It also calls for the bidder to list the price at which the metal addressing plates and billing machine are to be sold to the city if the one-year contract is not renewed

The duties include: to prepare a list of persons to be assessed the charge; to compute, based on water consumption, the amount of the charge to each; to provide the approximately 6,000 two-cent post cards required for each month's billing; to print and perforate these cards to show the charge; to make changes in the customer lists promptly, and to deliver the bills to the city for distribution.

Council previously adopted an ordinance authorizing the safety-service director to advertise for bids for purchase necessary additional office machines for the city to do its own billing.

There was no explanation given for the new ordinance last night. Apparently it is an effort to determine which method would be the most economical for the city to use in billing the charge.

Improvements Okayed

Adopted unanimously was a resolution authorizing the construction of sanitary and storm water sewers, concrete pavement, curbs and gutters and sidewalks in the Fair Park first and second additions to Marion.

The additions are those being developed by the National Development Corp. on land lying north of E. Fairground St. just east of the county fairgrounds. The area recently was annexed to the city.

A discussion arose over plans to install curbs and gutters along E. Fairground St in front of lots owned by the corporation but not in front of those few lots not owned by the corporation.

Councilman-at-large Richard Lister said he did not agree with this plan but later voted to approve the proposal. Councilman-at-large Robert G Haldeman said that curbs and gutters have been similarly installed where petitions called for them to be built only on certain portions of a street.

Ralph Howard, representing the corporation, pointed out that the curbs would be made so that the ends of the sections would be rounded and would not create a traffic hazard.

Annexation Approved

Adopted unanimously with little comment were two ordinances accepting the annexation and platting of a three acre tract in the Oakland Heights area south of Bellefontaine Ave.

George Piacentino represented Harry Tomassini, the property owner involved. Mr. Piacentino said plans are to subdivide the three acres into 16 home-building sites.

He said the storm water is to be drained into a field tile south of the project and sanitary sewage will be emptied into city sanitary sewers for disposal.

At its last meeting, council questioned the advisability of dumping the storm waters into the field tile. Mr. Piacentino said last night that Mr. Tomassini feels the field tile to the south will adequately provide for storm water drainage from the area. He noted that the natural drainage from the area is to the south whereas nearest existing city storm water sewers lie to the north.

One of the ordinances provided for accepting the application for annexation of the land and the other was to accept the plat and confirm the dedication of streets proposed in the plat. One new 50-foot wide street to be called Edison Ave. is planned to serve the area to intersect with a proposed extension of Keener Ave., Mr. Piacentino said.

Zone Change Asked

A resolution to refer to the City Planning Commission a proposal to change the zoning of some lots on S. Prospect St. owned by A. J. Buday from residential to commercial was adopted unanimously.

Mr. Piacentino also represented Mr. Buday. He said the lots involved are located on S. Prospect St north of the new Ohio Edison Bldg. and across the street from a commercial establishment now existing.

Council noted that the request to change the zoning was being made before the adjacent lots were sold as residential lots.

Mr. Piacentino said that the exact type of commercial establishment for the area has not been determined The land is being set aside for this use prior to the time the other lots are sold for residential properties, he said.

Assistant Authorized

An ordinance to create the position of second assistant city solicitor for a two-week period and to appropriate $107 to pay for his services was approved unanimously. City Solicitor Riley Hall noted that his first assistant, John Stuckey, currently is hospitalized, necessitating temporary employment of another assistant.

Proposal To Be Studied

Sent back to the finance committee for further study was an ordinance to proceed with the improvement of Oliver St from Bennett St. south by installation of a sanitary and storm water sewer

It was referred to the finance committee to determine if the city has adequate funds to pay its share of the cost of the improvement, which was set at $1,742 by the city engineer's office.

A vote was taken on whether to refer it to the finance committee and those voting to do so were: James Jenkins, Harold Smith, Ralph Williams, Mr. Lister and Mr. Haldeman. The other four councilmen voted against the action saying they felt the ordinance should be considered immediately.

Committee Study Due

A resolution authorizing Lester W. Firstenberger to improve Uhler Ave. from Mt. Vernon Ave. south to the city limits was sent to the streets and alleys committee for more study.

Mr. Firstenberger told council that it was his desire to make the improvements at his own expense and that his plans were to put in two four-inch courses of stone to serve as the street.

He said that it was impossible to get 60 per cent of the residents of the street to sign a petition for paving of the street according to city engineering department specifications.

Ralph Williams, chairman of the streets and alleys committee, questioned the advisability of putting in a "sub-standard" street and asked who would be responsible for maintaining it.

City Solicitor Hall pointed out that the proposed resolution provided that the city would not accept the street until it was paved and legally this would mean the city would not be responsible for maintaining it.

Mr. Haldeman questioned whether or not as a practical matter this would be true. Mr. Williams said he, too, felt that perhaps in two or three years the fact that the city had not accepted the street would be forgotten and the city would be expected to maintain a substandard street

Mr. Haldeman noted that present policy is to put in a substantially paved street which "if it is properly constructed" will require no maintenance for 10 to 15 years."

Mr. Firstenberger said that the property owners on the street were not asking that the city accept or maintain the street.

Other Business

In other business last night, council:

Heard a request from Councilman-at-large John Courtright Jr. that the streets and alleys committee investigate the "ridiculously low" charge made for capping (reserving) parking meters for use of businesses, individuals, organizations and so on. He said the charge made for capping a meter is only 25 cents a day and he feels this is far too low and that allowing such use of the meters for days at a time defeats their purpose. The matter was referred to the streets and alleys committee by Don Quaintance, council president.

Heard complaints from John Williams of 624 Mary St. and Charles Deem of 625 Mary St. that sanitary sewage is backing up into their basements during storms. Mr. Williams said that he had lived in his home for nine years and it has only been during the last two years, after the city made some repairs to the sewers in Mary St, that the water has backed up in his basement or in about 10 others in the area.

He said he has complained of the condition several times and nothing has been done about it. He threatened to take the matter to court if necessary. James Jenkins, Second Ward, said he knew the complaints to be true and pointed out that the condition was only called to the attention of the present safety-service director, R. Guy Bigelow once. He said he knew complaints were registered with the former administration a number of times. Don Quaintance asked that Mr. Jenkins contact Mr. Bigelow again to determine if something could be done to correct the condition.

Council directed the residents of the Olney Ave. extension from Bellefontaine Ave south to re-circulate petitions for improvement of their street with curbs and gutters and sidewalks. Three of the residents of the street attended last night's meeting and said they no longer wanted sidewalks on the street as originally petitioned for. One of them, Clarence R. Eddy of 642 Olney Ave, said that they had originally signed petitions calling for sidewalks on both sides of the street. At the last meeting, council heard a request that sidewalks on the west side of the street not be constructed. Mr. Eddy said if the sidewalks were not to be placed on both sides of the street there was no need for them on either side. Solicitor Hall said that in order to do this it would be necessary to repeal a previously adopted ordinance declaring the improvements necessary and to start over again with new petitions stating exactly what the residents of the street want in the way of improvements.

Council discussed a proposal to move a traffic light now located at N. Main and Fairview Sts. one block north to the city limits at Copeland Ave. and Hecker Sts. on N. Main St Mr. Piacentino said he represented four clients who felt the light would be more effective at N. Main and Hecker St. and Copeland Ave. than at its present location. He noted that the light is operated only on Sundays and Wednesday nights at its present location. City Solicitor Riley Hall said that Mayor Gale D. Ireland has asked that legislation be prepared calling for the light to be moved to the new location.

Council received a formal letter of protest from Paul Menzer of 534 S. Vine St. and W. T. Bland of 550 S. Vine St. concerning the proposed opening of Eisenhower Ave. from S. Vine St. to Seminole Ave. The street runs between their properties and they contend that they have maintained it for 15 years for their own and the public's use and that they do not now want it opened as a through street. Solicitor Hall said there was nothing council could do legally in the matter since some 80 per cent of the other property owners on the street had signed petitions calling for it to be opened and improved with curbs, gutters and sidewalks.

Council heard a request from Councilman - at - large Richard Lister that some action be taken to insure that utilities companies properly repair streets which they dig up for various reasons. A motion that the safety-service director take any steps necessary to insure that this is done was adopted 9-0.

Unanimously adopted was a motion by Ralph Williams that the safety-service director be asked to contact officials of the railroads in Marion and request them to instruct their trainmen not to use their locomotive whistles excessively in the city, particularly at those crossings which already are protected with automatic gates and flasher lights.

All councilmen were present for last night's meeting The invocation was given by Rev Milton Lashley, pastor of Quinn Chapel AME church.

Woman Driver Admits Infractions, Goes Free

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — While driving to town to report to work, Tulsa policie detective Walter Turner noticed a wheel on the car ahead was badly out of line. He honked and waved at the woman motorist.

The elderly woman stopped, rolled down her car window and said:

"Officer, please have mercy. I know I went through that red light, but I've learned my lesson. Give me one more chance."

Turner tipped his hat politely and drove away.

Sleepiness No Defense For Crash, Judge Rules

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The Virginia Supreme Court says the "exercise of ordinary care and prudence" should be enough to keep a man from falling asleep. Accordingly, the court held that Army Sgt. Dorkin Riggins Jr. couldn't use sleep as a "tailor-made defeinse to negligence."

Riggins went to sleep while driving his date home from a dance on an Army post and his car ran off the road and hit a tree.

Healthy Sign

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The national commander of the American Legion says it's a good thing for the branches of the armed forces to air their differences in the open.

J. Addington Wagner, who flew in from Washington Monday to make advance preparations for the Legion's national convention in September, said the squabble "is a healthy sign as long as it is kept within reasonable bounds."

He was admitted on trial in the Ohio Anpual Conference in 1946 and into full connection in 1948.

Prior to his appointment in 1953 to the Bellefontaine Church, he had served for five years as pastor of the North College Hill Methodist Church in Cincinnati.

Prominent for his work with youth in the Ohio Conference, he is chairman of the Conference Commission of Christian Vocation and vice president of the Ohio Conference Board of Education. Wider Program Planned at Grass-Roots Level

Presbyterians Stressing Evangelism

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The 168th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. today was urged to carry on a wider program of evangelism at the grass roots level

The church's National Commission on Evangelism, reporting on the sixth day of the assembly's seven-day meeting, said, "There has been a distinct change in the religious climate in the last 10 years."

"Church membership and church attendance have increased," the commission said. "There is a willingness to listen, if not necessarily to respond, to the message of the Christian church."

ALONG WITH THIS "heightened religious interest," continued the commission, there has come a return to evangelism

"Evangelism is being restored to the heart of the church and, while in some quarters grave doubts are held as to its legitimacy and effectiveness, the tempo of our times and the dilemma of the church are forcing a reconsideration of the nature of evangelism and its place in the life of the church. There is still much apathy but the old hostility has almost disappeared"

The assembly passed two major milestones Monday — approval of a merger with the United Presbyterian Church and the admitting of women to the ministry.

THE MERGER PLAN was adopted by unanimous voice vote after some opposition over the name choice.

The special negotiating committee had selected the United Presbyterian Church of the U.S.A."

The Rev. Howard W. Edgar, Punxsutawney, Pa., proposed a substitute motion that would have sent the merger plan back to committee to find a new name

The substitute motion was rejected, also by voice vote—but not a unanimous one. Debate on the issue then was ended and the 1,000 delegates gave the merger their undivided approval.

The United Presbyterian Church's General Assembly will vote on the union next month with the presbyteries of both churches also required to pass on it The merged group would have approximately three million members, all but 275,000 from the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

NOT INVOLVED IS the Presbyterian Church in the U. S, a Southern branch, which rejected a three-way merger last year.

There was no floor vote on the question of admitting women to the Presbyterian Ministry. The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures (petitions) merely announced that a sufficient number of presbyteries had approved a change in the church's bylaws. The vote by presbyteries was 205 to 35, with approval by 129 required.

Special Leap Year Ring Is Designed by Jewelist

DALLAS (INS) — A young Dallas jewelist has designed an engagement - wedding ring as a Leap Year special.

Mrs. Muriel Bright says the novel ring gives a girl the assurance that the engagement will be followed by a wedding because it symbolizes both a pledge and a promise.

In its unique design a large flawless stone, entirely visable from every angle, is suspended above the traditional row of diamonds in the wedding band.

Although she doesn't claim economy as one of its attractions, Mrs. Bright does point out that the man gets two rings for the price of one.

Beer Permit Granted

The Albers Supermarket at 390 E Center St was one of 30 places of business in the state recently granted new retail beer and wine permits according to William C. Bryant, director of the Ohio department of liquor control.

The local grocery was issued a C-a license, which permits it to sell 3.2 per cent beer for off-premise consumption.

Hearing Is Set For Akron Boy Held in Killing

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A hearing for a 16-year-old boy who told police he shot and killed his mother accidentally will be held early next week before Juvenile Judge Russell Thomas.

John Kenneth Frank was released from the Summit County detention home Monday so he could attend the funeral of his mother in Chicago Thursday.

He told police he was trying to stop a quarrel between his parents when he accidentally discharged a .22 caliber foreign-made automatic pistol. The bullet struck Mrs. Anna E. Frank, 43, in the heart.

The shooting occurred at the Frank home early Sunday after the boy and his parents had attended a dance Saturday night at the Akron Naval Air Station. John said the quarrel between his mother and step-father, Phillip R. Frank, started at the dance. The elder Frank is a chief aviation mechanic stationed at the air base.

Police Capt. Carroll Cutright, who questioned the boy Monday, said, "everything in the case points to accidental shooting."

Assistant Summit County Prosecutor James Barbuto said the boy would return here after the funeral for the hearing before Thomas.

Stabbed Guard's Condition 'Good'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A London Prison Farm guard, stabbed while trying to prevent an escape, is in "good" condition today, a Mount Carmel Hospital aide said.

The guard, Roy Gordon, 35, of Leesburg, received knife wounds in the hands and right side Sunday night while trying to prevent the escape of honor inmate James Esson, a convicted murderer, Supt. R. B. Eckle said.

One of two inmates who walked away about the same time as Esson's escape was arrested in Wilmington Monday. Police identified him as Joseph Ferrall, 46.

John O. Meyers, 38, the other walkaway, and Esson are still at large.

Eckle said Esson, serving a life term for the 1948 robbery slaying of a Cuyahoga County man, tried to take a truck which Gordon was using to patrol the grounds. When Gordon resisted, he was stabbed, Eckle said.

Man Fatally Stabbed

CLEVELAND (AP) — Joseph McDonough, 65-year-old resident of the Little Sisters of the Poor Home, was stabbed fatally last night in a fight with a general yard man and gardener at the home, police said.

Taken into custody was Michael Frankiewacz, 67. Detective said he admitted he was struggling with McDonough when the victim was stabbed, but said Mc Donough had attacked him with the knife. Police were unable to find the weapon.

Christian Science Faith Described In Local Lecture

Mrs. Elizabeth Carroll Scott of Memphis, Tenn., described beliefs of the Christian Science faith at a lecture Monday night in the local First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Her subject was "Christian Science: The Way of Dominion."

She declared that the first mention of man in the Bible states that he is made in the image and likeness of God, while the next statement concerning man tells that God has given him dominion over all the earth.

Dominion, she explained, means supreme power and one who reflects supreme power is necessarily free from fear. She added that humanity today is apparently very far from asserting and proving this dominion.

She pointed out that Christian Science teaches that one can exercise dominion and thereby control the everyday affairs of life in the degree that one reflects divine law. Christian Science teaches that God is the only mind, flawless and eternal, she declared.

Statutes Searched For Authorization On Fee Collection

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A search by the Franklin County prosecutor has failed to turn up statutes authorizing the collection of several types of county fees.

Prosecutor Samuel L. Devine said last night, however, that the investigation by his office is "far from complete."

Laws giving Franklin County the right to collect an estimated two million dollars in building inspection fees over the past 20 years are the particular object of the search, Devine said.

But there is also a question about the legality of fees collected for inspection of septic tanks and filing of rezoning applications, the prosecutor said.

"We must determine whether or not there is statutory authority for the county government to levy such fees," he added.

Devine indicated that other counties may have a similar problem.

He also traced briefly the history of the Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc., group, of which The Star is a member, and described some of the responsibilities to its readers which a paper seeks to fulfill.

The speaker was introduced by Robert Bush, Lions Club president.

Guests included Robert Brown, city school superintendent, and William Coffman, both of Marion, and Charles Bowen of Jackson, O.

Lorain Deputy Critical After Battle With Police

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 30-year-old Lorain County deputy sheriff, shot down in a gun battle with police officers in Washington Court House, remains in critical condition, aides at University Hospital reported early today.

Shot through the left eye in Monday's foray was Steve Mohowski, en route home from a Florida vacation.

A service station attendant, who became frightened when he saw a gun in Mohowski's belt, ran to police for aid. Three patrolmen arrived and said later that Mohowski opened fire on them. The policemen returned the fire, hitting Mohowski.

The Money Will Be Easy

The easiest thing about a federal highway program, as is true of most federal programs, will be the taxation to pay for it.

The money will be there, piled up in heaps, when the politicians, lobbyists, planners, designers and legalists need it.

In federal projects, the thing that is hardest to do in local projects — get the money — can be done without delay. But from that point on, federal projects are subject to the same confusion as all other projects, only more so.

There will be a brace of bureaucrats shuffling paper for every working stiff on the handle of a jackhammer and a foursome of clerks and calculators for every bulldozer operator.

Judged by the time it will take to get a decision out of Washington, the capital of the United States will be a thousand miles inland from the Ross ice shelf at the South Pole.

Moreover, by the time the money has been squeezed and manipulated by all the patriots who will be trying to improve the lot of mankind, starting with themselves and their clients, it will be only a shadow of itself.

These will be the things to remember at the outset of a great, big, new, supercolossal federal highway program, lest the idea get started that it is going to be different from anything ever witnessed before.

It will be the same thing that always has been witnessed before, only on a larger scale. The idea of beefing up highway building with an extra shot of federal funds is fine, but there also will be an extra shot of bureaucratic confusion and procrastination. There always has been.

The Egg and the Engineer

James W. Shocknessy, chairman of Ohio Turnpike Commission, wants it known there was no delay in asking for a financial decision on a north-south turnpike after the engineering reports had been turned over to the commission.

This is in answer to implied criticism of the Turnpike Commission in a statement by Gov. Lausche urging prompt action and in comment by this newspaper and others on the governor's desire for prompt action.

The appearance of delay, if any, was caused first by the time consumed in engineering studies of Ohio's proposed Turnpike No. 2 and then a 10-day delay by the Ohio Highway Commission in relaying the result to the Turnpike Commission, Mr. Shocknessy explains.

Nothing can be done any more until the engineers are through working. Everything depends on them, and the nature of what they are expected to do precludes haste. They are paid to be thorough, not hasty.

Even if they wanted to go faster, engineering is like hatching eggs. You can't speed it up for the convenience of those waiting for chickens, which is why everybody agrees that the United States must have more and more engineers —so more projects can be hatched out.

The Price of Progress

School has ended in districts that favor short Christmas and Easter vacations over June closings—and for most of us this will be the end of school worries until next September.

But the worries will not go away merely because they are neglected. More children will grow up to school age during the next three months. More children will be born this summer to grow up to school age in six years.

More families will move into growing neighborhoods to swamp more overcrowded schools with pupils. More taxpayers, confronted with all this evidence of a problem in human progress, will wring their hands and wonder, "Whither?"

The answer to their wonderment is simple. The school problem will go away when there are no more children; when the population quits increasing. It will cease to be when there is no more progress.

In the meantime, the price of progress will have to be paid. And it will be high.

There will be no school vacation for taxpayers.

Century of the Uncommon Man

Thirty-five important U. S. corporations will have been represented by the end of 1956 in meetings sponsored by California Institute of Technology to look into the 21st century. All but eight already have seen the view.

It is speculative, and all bets would be off if there were a world catastrophe. But it is instructive to see what educated guessers believe may be in store for mankind. They are calling it a new era of civilization.

It would be the era of the uncommon man. The premium would be on intelligence — the kind of brain power that could deal with the endless technical problems which will beset the world in the 21st century.

The intellectual supply to meet the technical demand will have to be furnished systematically That is why California Institute of Technology is asking corporations to look into the future. It has no misgivings, incidentally.

For one thing, women will be recruited in larger numbers for technical work. Both men and women will reach new levels of intellectual power as the result of improvement in the behavioral sciences. Even the common man will find himself in possession of mental powers he never knew he had when being common was a badge of distinction.

The 21st century will be well worth waiting for if you have half a century to spare.

Topsy-Turvy Politics

By David Lawrence

Democrats 'Incriminating' Each Other

Everything seems topsy-turvy in national politics today. The slogans and the crusades don't seem to be working out—at least not for the Democrats.

Lawrence

Time was when what was "good for the country was good for General Motors." But now, since the Federal Reserve Board has put some on bank credit, the officials of General Motors are complaining that sales in small business as well as big business are being hurt.

Time was when a lawyer named Murray Chotiner of California—campaign manager at different times for Messrs. Nixon, Knowland, and Warren, respectively—was projected into the headlines by Democratic critics in the Senate on the ground that once he had become associated with politics as a manager of some kind, he must presumably cease thereafter between campaign to practice his profession.

Now Sen. Estes Kefauver takes his own opponent, Adlai Stevenson, to task for what the latter did in practicing his profession as a lawyer between campaigns.

MR. KEFAUVER was discussing, in one of his Florida speeches, the danger of big business gobbling up little business. He said:

"It is a remarkable thing to me that Mr. Stevenson is so strangely silent on this important subject. Mr. Stevenson's silence could hardly be due to his unfamiliarity with the subject. Just last year he was employed as a lawyer by the Radio Corporation of America to argue its case in the Supreme Court of the United States, against an antitrust action brought by the United States."

Mr. Kefauver was quick to add that he did not mean "to criticize a lawyer for representing any side in a lawsuit." This is quite a concession for any Democratic senator to make today after the way sought recently to pillory Mr. Chotiner for representing clients in criminal cases.

SEN. KEFAUVER, however, goes on to soothe the "lawyer vote" as he says:

"But Mr. Stevenson's case was somewhat different. At the time he accepted the RCA retainer he was titular head of the democratic party and what he said and did might well have been regarded as reflecting the views of the party and the direction in which it was going.

"Since Mr. Stevenson has placed himself and the party in a dubious position, I would have expected him to have clarified his opinion and his purposes in the matter of antitrust laws and their enforcement. His silence has been one of the curious facts of this campaign."

Maybe the silence was due to the small fact—as Mr. Stevenson himself now points out—that it wasn't an antitrust suit at all, but a private lawsuit between the RCA and the Zenith Radio Company.

As for "silence" by Mr. Stevenson on various things political, it isn't, of course, a bit more curious than Mr. Kefauver's reluctance to speak out about another of his opponents—Gov. Harriman—who, because he is a multimillionaire, might be thought to be ineligible for the presidential nomination in a party dedicated to the proposition that big business is bad and the possession of millions of dollars of private wealth is even worse.

THERE ARE a lot of more or less "titular" things about Mr. Harriman's career. He is, for instance, the "titular" head of his party in New York State today, though some say Sen. Lehman is the real boss. Mr. Harriman is believed to be the "titular head" still of a big railroad, having inherited a fortune from his father—the famous railroad king. The New York governor was for many years, too, the "titular" head of a big banking house in wall street. But he is reported lately to have said something to this effect to his friends:

"Big business is bad. I know about its iniquities from the inside. Let me at 'em. What's good for Wall Street isn't good for the country."

It's Mr. Kefauver's implied criticism, however, of the law practice of defeated candidates in the Democratic party that has caused an arching of eyebrows of Capitol Hill.

IF EVERY candidate is to be barred from taking lawyers' fees from big corporations lest this conflict with his faithful responsibilities as "titular" head of the Democratic party in his home state or congressional district, then some men who have been re-elected recently to Congress after an interval of defeat, are going to be embarrassed and some of them, perhaps, ought not to attempt to avenge their defeat next autumn either, because they might possibly have to vote on legislation affecting some of their previous clients.

It's a topsy-turvy world in politics nowadays. There are plenty of words spoken on the stump, but so far as any thorough presentation of basic issues is concerned, the campaign is still nebulous—or perhaps, only "titular."

Among the Romances

By Frank Tripp

Had a good chance lately to hear nostalgic tall tales projected by other old-timers; to view objectively how they may oft think mine a pack of lies; yarns so much retold and elaborated as to become real to the narrator.

It was at a gathering of some 200 newspaper veterans. The youngest had been 25 years at newspapering, from that back to 55 years, many long retired. Yet all of them still on the beam.

I sat next to a lithe and beautiful gal, a dead ringer for Oveta Culp Hobby, and figured that she must be the young paid secretary.

Later I thought that I had gotten into the wrong meeting, when told that she was a 32-year member. Then I was sure that this must be the Liars Club, and she the grand exalted liar. Can't believe it yet.

THE YARNS and experiences that floated around that night would make a whole library of controversial suspense reading. True to form, the more weird and improbable the experience, the more veterans there were to "remember it well" and add harrowing details.

A couple of the sagas I tucked away for a "rainy day" column. Only to find that I have already written them, with even more mystic and vivid embellishment than these real actors in them portrayed the incidents to be. It's a disease.

Veterans who, as young reporters, wrote some ture, drab story in half a column, can make a full page thriller of it 30 years later, when there's no one left to dispute them. I still have a few waiting for someone to die, who could make a liar of me.

JUST HOW RELIABLE is history anyway? Strange things happen between an event and the times of its retelling. Lots of it would not be worth recording if chronicled exactly as it happened; as the newspapers of its day reported it.

It is jolly that the years magnify eras, people and incidents in our lives. It must be part of God's scheme to keep old-timers happy. Must be He planned that, when age slows activity, things through which we have passed loom more important than they were: romantic, heroic, astounding, unbelievable. Our best fiction.

I KNOW an old fellow who had always kept a diary; had them back for many years. In time I discovered that his yarns didn't always jibe with his diaries. One day I noticed some alterations in the old records.

For fun I singled out one discrepancy and slyly asked the old man to tell me again the story about the neighbor who swapped his wife for a pig. According to his diary, the wife had been dead two years when the swap took place.

SURE ENOUGH, crowded into a diary of two years later, the wife died for a second time. Truth was that the widower neighbor had swapped a hired girl. There's always some factual basis for old-timers' tales. And they can always wriggle out.

It is going to be tough on coming generations of romancers, with all of the permanent micro files and volumes of unperishable rag paper editions of current newspapers lying around public libraries. Lying, not lie-ing.

$27 Billion Superhighway Program

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The nation is on the eve of a huge new super-highway program costing about 27½ billion dollars over the next 13 years, with the federal government putting up 25 billions and the states the rest.

It will mean a system of 40,000 miles spanning the country, linking the main cities, with six, four and two-lanes, overpasses, underpasses, and a minimum of stoplights.

What will it be like? Rep. Russell V. Mack (R-Wash) recently painted a picture of it:

". . . Thirteen years from now the American motorist can travel from. . . northern Maine to the Mexican border south of San Diego, Calif., a distance of 4,500 miles, over four-lane divided highways on which traffic will not be interrupted by a single stoplight."

—:—

SOUND ROMANTIC or farfetched? An official of the government's Bureau of Roads, which will supervise the project, said "no, that's just about right."

In Congress the House has passed a bill to set this sytem in motion. The Senate was expected to pass a similar one today. There will be differences between the two remaining to be ironed out. President Eisenhower is expected to make the measure law.

Why such a superhighway network? For one thing: Defense, or speed in case of war. For another: To meet traffic needs. Ten years ago there were 34 million registered vehicles on the highways. Today there are 62 millions. In 10 years there will be about 85 million.

BUT THE 27½ BILLION dollars for the superhighways is not all the money the government and states will spend on highways. They will probably spend an additional 23 billions over the next 13 years on primary, secondary and urban roads. The federal government's share should be about 36½ billion dollars.

The federal government and the states for years have been chipping in on the cost of primary (main, most traveled highways), secondary (less-traveled) and urban (highways going into cities) roads.

In this country there are now about 240,000 miles of primary, 500,000 miles of secondary, and perhaps 15,000 miles of urban roads. Where does the new supersystem fit into this picture?

—:—

OF THE 240,000 MILES of primary roads, 40,000 will be designated as part of the interstate system. Does that mean no new roads will be built, that the 40,000 miles of primary roads will simply be improved? No.

Some of those 40,000 miles will be widened, straightened out, overpassed or underpassed, or otherwise improved. But about 32,000 miles of new roads—which will become the primary roads—will be built.

For example: A present primary road—or parts of it—may have to be diverted to make it shorter or more direct.

One official of the Bureau of Roads figured the program will mean employment for maybe 400,000 men a year working directly on construction and perhaps 600,000 a year in businesses connected with roadbuilding.

—:—

THIS ISN'T ALL FREE Taxes are going up on motorists and truckers. For example:

A boost of one cent a gallon to three cents on the gasoline tax, special motor fuel and diesel fuel; an increase on the tire tax from the present five cents to eight cents a pound; a new tax of three cents a pound on camelback used for retreading; a rise of two percentage points—to 10 per cent—in the manufacturer's tax on trucks, buses, and trailers; and a higher tax on trucks weighing over 26,000 pounds.

Part of the Pageant

By TRUMAN TWILL

The "class trip" now is as commonplace among students in the United States as the "grand tour of the Continent" used to be for young Britons.

All eyes turn eastward to New York City when it's time for the great adventure. For four years, the class adviser has guarded the accumulating class treasury like a mother hen guarding a nest, with only one thing in mind.

Dozens of great and small projects to raise money have been undertaken, with varying degrees of success. But by hook or crook there has been enough buying power stashed away to underwrite an expedition to Cosmopolis after all other bills were paid.

This pattern is now followed so widely that graduating classes can buy package tours that will account for every minute from the time they pour into special coaches until they straggle out again four or five days later, their energy and their money all gone—but with permanent and priceless memories.

It is the first train ride for most of them. And for many it may be the only train ride because they may never have another occasion to travel en masse.

The steel-nerved teachers who chaperone them and tolerate their practice of staying awake all night so they can test their ability to stay awake all the next day have been to New York so many times when they have earned their ten-year stripes they feel like commuters.

The philosophical conductors and brakemen and the tireless porters who preside over the bedlam that is riding with them have learned to think of "class trips" as just one more occupational hazard, like sudden stops and failure of the heating system.

They realize what it means to their passengers and to the people they waved goodbye to on all the small-town station platforms —this last joint adventure of classmates — this first leave-taking.

It has become part of the pageantry of America, and they are sure Norman Rockwell will do a cover for the Saturday Evening Post about it.

The Rockwell picture should show the new luggage and the boxes of food. It should show the harried faces of fathers and mothers and grandmothers and girl friends and boy friends who have waited for an hour-late train because there were four other "class trips" to be picked up first.

It should show the consternation of a porter facing a night of chaos, the relief on the face of the station agent, the professional competency of the chaperoning teacher and the assistant ringmaster, the varied expressions of the young adventurers . . . all the details.

Look, Norman, everybody knows you're busy. Just hand over a brush and the paint and we'll get the picture started. You can fill in the details later. You know what they are . . . the details of America . . . the kids, their parents, their hopes, fears and misgivings.

Such as arise from the fact many class trips would be made to Washington instead of New York, except for colored students who then would discover for the first time that what they were taught about equal rights has never been taken literally in the capital of their own country.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Frankfurter Queen

Don't look now, but there's a National Hot Dog Month just ahead. In the welter of special days, weeks, months and years on the American calendar, this one would seem to be the top eyebrow-raiser. But our agents have investigated and made it official that there really is to be such an event, and that the publicists are already tying the hot dog up with the late FDR, Eleanor Roosevelt, King George, Queen Elizabeth, the Waldorf, the National Chamber of Commerce, the sixteenth century and Ike Eisenhower. The frankfurter and roll gained special elevation when President and Mrs. Roosevelt served them on the White House lawn to the late King George and the Princess, it is declared.

-:-

DURING HOT DOG MONTH a Hot Dog Queen will be chosen (no fooling) and a giant frankfurter will be presented to Ike, the publicist says. That there is an American girl who will take this title without a fight remains to be seen. You never can tell. We knew a girl who could have been chosen Hasenpfeffer Queen For 1939 had she not become confused and entered a Miss Sardines-on-Toast contest.

Even then the confusion didn't end and in some way she got crowned Goddess of Goulash for that year Then—guess what—she lost the crown for violating the amateur rules in having accepted bus fare as a child on the first leg of a journey to choose a Baby Queen for National Animal Crackers Week.

THEN THERE WAS a 1942 contest for the Miss Cheesecake of the Year won by a woman who didn't even know she was playing and sued for $100,000 damages. (In a jury trial she was allowed a verdict of $35 and admonished by the court for entering, during the trial, a contest to select an All-American Coast-to-Coast Queen of Veal Potpies and Housewife Who Had Most For the Hamburger.

The oddest development in special week history, however, came in the case of a girl who was crowned Queen Ham Sandwich back in the 20's and eloped with a boy who had just won the title of Mister German Mustard. They lived the rest of their lives in a picnic park where they raised a child who grew up and became the American Bicarb King for 1949.

WE RATHER PITY the hot dog in this coming event. A hot dog knows very well it is just a hot dog and makes no pretense of thinking it is entitled to the honors expected by a war hero, outstanding patriot, a noble institution or a worthy cause. It feels embarrassed.

IN LITIGATION involving a restaurant in a public park a lawyer's declaration that it was catering to the general public brought from the bench the rejoinder, "Maybe so, but a steak at $5.85 is more than I can afford on my salary." . . . The judge gets $32,000 a year and, from our visits to restaurants in many places, we think such a salary keeps him definitely out of the steak-eating class. When you see a man eating a steak in a restaurant these days you know at once that he is in the $54,000 a year class, and even then can't afford a baked potato and dessert. . . The behavior of steak eaters are a guide and we made our judgments of salary on this basis:

Men ordering a steak unhesitatingly. . . $50,000 a year.

Man eating a sirloin with only a slight frown. . . $55,000.

Eating it with traces of a smile. . . $60,000.

Eating it and laughing. . . $75,000.

(The last man we saw ordering a planked steak with a maharajah and he was quite drunk.) What America needs most in this inflationary age is a good 50-cent nickel.

New Minister To Carry On Greek Battle

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Greece's new foreign minister Evanghelos Averoff says he will work with "unflinching determination" to end British rule of Cyprus and to secure the return of Archbishop Makarios from British exile.

Averoff was named to head the Foreign Ministry after Spyros politicians accused Theotokis of pro-British sentiments.

"We will use all appropriate means for achieving satisfaction in the Cypriot struggle for freedom and the liberation of Archbishop Makarios," Averoff asserted in a statement of policy. The British have confined Makarios, Greek Orthodox archbishop of Cyprus and leader of the movement to unite the island with Greece, on an island of the Seychelles group in the Indian Ocean.

Averoff said he would continue the government's foreign policy "which coincides with the viewpoints of most political parties of Greece." He has served as undersecretary for foreign affairs in previous Greek governments and is regarded as anti-British.

Seek To Halt Clashes

On Cyprus, British troops were ordered to build a permanent barbed-wire barricade through the heart of Nicosia in a move to prevent clashes between the Greek and Turkish communities. Temporary barbed-wire barriers between the island capital's Greek and Turkish quarters have been credited with keeping intercommunal disorders from spreading in the past. Plans call for the permanent barrier to include five gates which can be sealed off by security forces in times of emergency.

The Turkish minority on Cyprus is opposed to the drive for union with Greece, maintaining the island should go back to Turkey if British rule is ended.

Activities Reports Presented At Polio Unit's Yearly Meeting

The annual dinner meeting was held last night at the YMCA by the Marion County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

During the meeting, county reports covering 1955 and chapter plans for 1956 were given by Dr F. W. Rea, president of the local chapter. Richard Probst, 1956 March of Dimes co-chairman, reviewed this year's campaign in the absence of the chairman, Jack Danner.

Reporting on local chapter work during 1955, Dr. Rea said that Marion county did not have any new paralytic type cases. Throughout the county eight new cases were reported, the smallest number in the past few years.

"However, the need for funds in Marion County is now greater than ever," he said. "While there are now fewer new cases, patient care and treatment is far more expensive. During 1956, the local chapter will help assume financial responsibility for several surgery cases and several transfer cases."

He said that in recent years, polio treatment has become more expensive, thereby substantially increasing the cost of patient care and treatment. In order to help those that need continuing care, new treatments are being developed, new and more expensive equipment is needed, far more physiotherapists must be trained.

Commenting on the National Foundation research program, Dr. Rea said that several of this country's leading pharmaceutical companies as well as the foundation are devoting an extensive amount of time and money toward improvement of the polio vaccine.

Summarizing the March of Dimes campaign for 1956, Mr. Probst pointed out that an all-time record for contributions was set this year. A total of $29,055 35 was given, which shows an individual contribution of over 59 cents for every man, woman and child in Marion county. The previous record was set in 1954 when $28,111.59 was contributed

After the yearly reports were given, Mr. Danner was elected to active membership of the board of the chapter.

Officers elected for the new year include Dr. Rea, president; Carl H. Knirk, vice president; Mrs. H. R. Finney, secretary; Eugene Kelley, treasurer.

Radio and Television

By JOHN CROSBY

The Adult Western

The true western, which is to say a western adventure story, which has some basis in fact, is one of the phenomena of our time.

JOHN CROSBY

Everyone is prowling through the west digging up old miners' tales and embroidering them. NBC has "Wild Bill Hickock" and "Frontier," both considered fairly adult westerns as well as based on the files. CBS has "Gunsmoke." ABC has "Wyatt Earp" and next year it'll have "True Stories of Jim Bowie," which isn't a western exactly but follows the pattern of adventure and authenticity.

It's a trend, all right, and it was not necessarily inaugurated by Davy Crockett. Actually, the pioneer in the field was "Death Valley Days" which has been on radio or television for 25 years.

Virtually every single script—and the series is on the air 52 weeks a year—was written by Mrs. Ruth Woodman, one of the few persons who, along with the late Fred Allen, can boast that she has written more than she can lift.

IT WAS MRS. WOODMAN who discovered that true stories—especially in the early west which abounded in zany characters—were a good deal more interesting than Hopalong Cassidy (which was written by a guy who never got farther west than Chicago).

As an example, the most popular story on the radio series, which was repeated many times, was about a prospector who wanted to buy a car. Neither he nor his wife had ever seen a car but they'd heard of them. He went to town and, since he wanted the biggest car money could buy, he wound up with a white hearse.

He and his wife drove quite contentedly around in the hearse for a long time before he found out it was a hearse. Then he took it up a cliff and pushed it over. He'd thought all hearses were black.

This is the kind of story that is unlikely to occur to a writer in Manhattan, but you can hear them by the dozens in the west if you go out scouting for them, which is what Mrs. Woodman does. One of the more recent ones on television is called "The Baron of Arizona" and is truly a fabulous story and it also happens to be true. (Mrs. Woodman dug it out of the court records of one of the most famous cases of the west.)

-:-

THIS WAS THE STORY of an incredible con man and forger who laid claim to 11,000,000 acres of Arizona, including all of Phoenix, and had massive documents dating from the reign of Ferdinand of Spain to prove it.

The documents, all forgeries, he had even succeeded in planting in official archives both in Spain and Mexico. So authentic was his claim, that the baron had railroads and mines paying him fabulous sums for their property and he was living on a truly baronial scale in the south of Arizona.

His undoing came when a reporter—who had originally worked in the composing room and knew a good deal about paper—examined the supposedly 100-year-old deed from the King of Spain and discovered that the paper had been made by a paper company in Wisconsin that had only been in existance 15 years. The con man, actually an ex-street car conductor from San Francisco who had devoted 10 years to his monstrous fraud, went to jail.

ANOTHER OF THE MORE recent ones, "Bill Bottle's Birthday," one of Mrs. Woodman's lesser efforts, was about a prospector named Bottle who had struck it rich and decided to throw a party for all his relatives, advertised in all the leading newspapers of the country, and naturally flushed out a very gaudy collection of con men, fancy ladies and bums, all intent on taking him. This one was a little maudlin but it, too, is a decidedly offbeat story and a true one.

There is shrewd reasoning behind this trend toward literate westerns. By adding authenticity, a little sex and a modicum of intelligence, the producers are attracting a lot of adults to join the chore of kids who will watch anyway. "Death Valley Days" is now shown on 78 TV stations around the country and rates among men as the No. 1 syndicated TV western, according to Pulse. Altogether there have been 76 TV scripts, all derived from "Death Valley Days" staggering array of 731 radio scripts.

Local Driver Involved In Crash Near Galion

BUCYRUS — In attempting to pass another car with a truck approaching from the opposite direction, a Marion man was involved in a traffic accident a half-mile east of Galion on U. S. Route 30-S at 7:30 p.m. Monday, state patrolmen from Bucyrus reported.

William C. Houpt, 68, of 132 S. High St. was cited by highway patrolmen to appear before Galion Mayor Francis Schalip June 2 to answer a charge of passing without having the assured clear distance ahead. He posted an appearance bond.

The patrol said that Houpt was attempting to pass a car driven by Archie Worner, 63, of Mansfield and when he saw a truck coming from the opposite direction, cut in too sharply in front of Worner's car. A trailer that was being pulled behind Houpt's auto caught the Worner vehicle in the left front and moderate damage was caused to both the car and the trailer.

There were no injuries.

State Considering Cedar Point For Public Recreation Center

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche said today Ohio is considering acquisition of Cedar Point on Lake Erie's Sandusky Bay as a public recreation area.

Private interests recently announced negotiations to acquire the widely known amusement park and recreation area.

The governor said A. W. Marion, natural resources director, has been making a study of the area to determine its suitability for public use.

The site that resembles a thumb projecting into Sandusky Bay contains about 400 acres and some 7,000 feet of beach on Lake Erie. Additional frontage on Sandusky Bay is suitable for boating, fishing and other recreational purposes, Lausche said.

"My own opinion," the governor said in a statement, "is that the state of Ohio ought not to miss the opportunity of acquiring this land.

"If the Cedar Point area is acquired by the state, Ohio will then have in its possession all of the beach land of any quantity that lends itself to use for public bathing and will achieve the recommendation made by a governor's advisory committee created in 1946. . ."

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marie McDonald has been released from Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, where she was taken last week for observation. The actress is expecting a baby.

Demonstration Given For Local Hairdressers

Frank Keck and son, Frank Keck Jr. of Columbus, were guests and gave demonstrations of hair cuts and styles at a meeting of the Marion Chapter of the Hairdressers Guild Monday night at the YMCA. Serving as models were Mrs. Tillie Porter, Mrs. Betty Cook, Mrs. Mary Swan, Mrs. Thelma Goerlich and Mrs. Betty Parks. They also demonstrated hair trims.

Reports of a trip to the Magnetic Springs Polio Rehabilitation Center were given by several of the members. Beauty supplies for the center were contributed by the chapter. Another phase of the members' contribution to the center is the giving of permanents to the patients free of charge.

Reports showed that needs of the center include a stairway and the installation of two elevators so that more patients can be treated. With these facilities a barber-beauty shop could be made available to the patients, it was reported.

The meeting marked the close of the season. A potluck dinner is scheduled for the opening of the fall and winter meetings.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus, filed in Marion County Common Pleas Court by an inmate seeking release from the Marion Correctional Institution, was denied at a hearing this morning by Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith.

Negro Groups Boycott Buses In Tallahassee

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—A second Southern capital has been hit by a boycott of Negro bus riders stemming from a dispute over segregated seating arrangements.

Some students at Florida A&M University for Negroes began walking Monday in protest against the arrest of two Negro girl students for refusing to move to the rear of a Cities Transit Co. bus.

The Rev. C. K. Steele, president of the Tallahassee chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, said without elaborating that the boycott "will be continued beyond the university campus."

Charles L. Carter, manager of the transit firm, said Monday night, however, his company had experienced no general effects from any boycott.

Montgomery, Ala., has felt the effects of a bus boycott by Negro riders for several months. Most of its 50,000 Negroes have been boycotting buses since Dec. 5, 1955, in a protest against city and state segregation laws.

Florida has an old law requiring bus and railroad companies to provide separate accommodations for white and Negro passengers traveling within the state.

Florida, however, has no anti-boycott law like Alabama.

The two girl students here, Wilhelmina Jakes, 26, and Carrie F. Patterson, 20, were arrested Saturday. They were charged with placing themselves in a position to cause a riot and were released in $25 bond each pending a hearing in Police Court Friday.

Steele said the NAACP was looking into the legal angles of the arrests and into a cross burning in front of the students' home.

Richwood Council Passes Sewer Bill

RICHWOOD — The Richwood Village Council, meeting with only a quorum present Monday night, passed an ordinance regulating the size and make of sewer tile used in sanitary sewers in the village.

After third reading the ordinance, allowing use of any standard make tile four or more inches in diameter was adopted by the members. Previously the village regulations permitted use of only six inch tile or larger.

Council gave a second reading and passed on for third reading a zoning ordinance for the village. The ordinance had been worked on for the last two years by members of the village planning commission.

Legislation will be brought in at the next meeting creating a dog ordinance which would empower Mayor Nelson Blue to quarantine all dogs in the village at certain times in the year.

Mayor Blue requested council to consider the measure last night and, after considerable debate, the members said they would agree to the proposal. Mayor Blue said he would request the village solicitor to draw up legislation on the matter before the next meeting.

2 Americans Ousted

TROON, Scotland (AP) — Dynamite Billy Goodloe of Valdosta, Ga., and veteran Frank Strafaci of New York, two of America's brightest title hopes, were tumbled out of the British Amateur Golf Championship in the second round today.

Gene Andrews of Pacific Palisades, Calif., United States public links champion in 1954, trounced the long-driving but erratic Goodloe, 5 and 4, after Dr. Frank Deighton, a Scottish physician, had eliminated Strafaci, 3 and 2.

OLYMPIC OUTFIT. Swimming champion Shelley Mann of Arlington, Va., is shown in New York wearing the specially designed wool outfit to be worn by feminine members of the United States team at the 1956 Olympic games in Melbourne, Australia. It features a blue and white wool tweed jacket, a matching cap, navy blue skirt and red shoulder bag.

Former Marion Pastor Will Retire Next Month

A former Marion pastor, Rev. Franklin G. Markley, now minister of the Brooklyn Memorial Methodist Church on Archwood Ave. in Cleveland, will complete 52 years in the ministry next month and plans to retire.

Rev. and Mrs. Markley were honored by the congregation of his church at a special program recently. Important events of their lives were portrayed in a special "This Is Your Life" presentation. About 350 persons were present, including several Marion friends.

They were presented a gift of money.

Rev. Markley, who is 71, has served the Brooklyn Memorial Church in Cleveland since 1951. He served as pastor of Epworth Methodist Church here in the 1930s.

Mrs. Markley is the former Gertrude Ethel Wagoner. They have been married 50 years.

Steel Industry Wage Contract Talks Continue

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The United Steelworkers, which wants a "substantial" wage hike and other new contract benefits for its 600,000 members in the basic steel industry, today went forward with preliminary negotiations.

USW negotiating teams headed by President David J. McDonald called separate meetings with representatives of four big companies —Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.; Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., Inland Steel and Great Lakes Steel.

Today's sessions followed opening talks Monday with U.S Steel Corp.—usually the contract pace setter of the industry—Republic Steel and Bethlehem Steel. Follow-up meetings between the union and these firms also were on tap today.

Although McDonald did not reveal exact union demands, a wage increase, a layoff pay plan, premium pay for weekend work and increased insurance benefits to be paid by the companies were included in the 22 proposals he laid on the table.

The actual cost of the package is not known, but McDonald has said it was reasonable in view of record profits reported this year by most of the steel industry.

Spokesmen for both sides expressed hope that agreements can be reached before current contracts expire midnight June 30. After that the union is free to strike.

The U.S.S.R. has one farm worker to 2 or 3 people while the United States has one farm worker for 17 people.

Clare Luce

By George Sokolsky

SOKOLSKY

It is not pleasant to learn that our ambassador to Rome, Clare Luce, has worn herself out fighting against the slow, infiltrative conquest of Italy by the Communists. When one realizes how inadequately the United States is represented in many important countries, it has been fascinating to watch this frail woman doing a man's job and doing it to perfection.

When Clare Luce first went to Italy, the Communists conducted a violent and smearing propaganda against her, first because she is a woman. How dare the United States send a female ambassador to Italy! That objection did not stand the test of time. Then a series of funny stories were circulated about her with the intent of making her appear ridiculous. Many of these stories were associated with Mrs. Luce's Catholicism and were not so funny to those who heard them. She survived them all.

CLARE LUCE is one of America's most remarkable women who has succeeded in many fields through sheer ability and a tremendous capacity for work. She has been an actress, a writer, an editor, a playwright, a member of the House of Representatives, a housewife, a mother and an ambassador. And she has been able to do whatever was demanded of her with aplomb and wit. It would be a great loss if her illness were to lessen her opportunity for public service.

In the struggle against communism, Clare Luce, as far back as I can remember, at least a quarter of a century ago, grasped the essential fact that the strength of the Marxist movement lies in its pseudo-religious character and organization.

It is sometimes suggested by anti-Romanists that it is a remarkable circumstance that Marxism thrives so well in what we are accustomed to regard as Catholic countries, France, Italy, Poland, etc.

THE ANSWER is that when those who accept dialectical materialism rebel against God, they still desire the disciplines to which they are accustomed. The reason that Marxism succeeded in Soviet Russia rather than in Great Britain is that the autocratic character of Czarism suited the people who did not want freedom but order.

Human beings, no matter what ideas they choose to pursue, hope to live as they have been accustomed to live. That is why in Great Britain, when the Socialists are in control of government, they support the Royal family as the Conservatives do, and a former Socialist Prime Minister is willing to be an Earl and to sit in the House of Lords.

ITALIAN COMMUNISM, therefore, must be acknowledged as being anti-God but still seeking a morale which comes from association in a religiously disciplined society. Such anomalies and paradoxes are within the nature of a society which is undergoing violent changes, as all societies of man are these days.

In both Italy and France there are men who believe that they can be Roman Catholics and Marxists at the same time, which means that they believe in God and are atheists at the same time, just as in the United States there are some who hold that they can believe in human liberty and Marxism at the same time, which is like saying that they believe in freedom and totalitarianism at the same time. Many are quite sincere in their eclecticism, although upon analysis it proves them illogical if not altogether nonsensical.

Clare Luce is capable of understanding these confusions because she has educated herself in the broadest sense in the humanities which is more than can be said for many professors in universities who have become so specialized that the pinky on the right hand does not know of the pinky on the left hand, if any.

-:-

THE NARROWNESS which comes from specialization results in a loss of intelligent leadership which is more sorely needed here than engineers and scientists about which we hear so much.

If Clare Luce cannot continue her work in Italy, there is plenty that she can do in America, and the fact that she is a woman will not make any difference.

She has a witty tongue which, if not inhibited by cautious advisers, makes fools sorry that they tested their little masculine minds against her colossal feminine mind. When the good Lord handed out brains, He did not inquire as to the gender of the recipient.

Phantom Success

By Hal Boyle

HAL BOYLE

SYLVA, N. C. (AP) — Many men who dream a big dream and make it come true learn to their surprise that it isn't what they really wanted after all.

But what can they do? Most remain embittered prisoners of a phantom success they no longer enjoy but are afraid to give up.

It takes a good man to give up his hard-won position at the peak and fight back down the rocky road he has traveled in order to regain something finer he lost earlier on the way up.

Such a man is John Parris, the only reporter I can name offhand who covers his beat in his own Cadillac.

—:—

JOHN'S ANCESTORS journeyed from the coastal plain into the mountains of western North Carolina along rude horse and oxen paths shortly after the American Revolution, and the family has put its roots down pretty deep here since then.

But John, who became a reporter at 13 and never encumbered his mind with college lumber, got a yearning for the far places. Like most small town newspapermen, he dreamed of becoming a top byline writer in the big city.

He did. Before he was 23 he was writing daily feature articles out of New York for a news agency.

But more distant fields called. John went to London during the blitz raids. He landed as a war correspondent with the initial Allied forces that invaded Africa on Nov. 8, 1942.

—:—

AFTER THE WAR, John returned to New York, became a diplomatic correspondent for The Associated Press and covered the birth and development of the United Nations. He scored a number of notable beats. Covering the homburg hat set and its intrigues was heady...exciting...important. Yet something, he didn't know what, was missing.

In 1946 he met and within five weeks married Dorothy Luxton, a pretty art teacher from Topeka, Kan. But he had the forethought to tell her when he proposed:

"Honey, you may have to learn to use a double-bitted ax to cut up wood to keep a fire going."

Soon after, his father, a jeweler here, died, and John took a leave of absence to come down and settle the estate.

"Almost as soon as I got here," he recalled, "I realized what was missing in my life. It was a kind of happiness I had known in the hills, and hadn't been able to find anywhere else."

—:—

IT TOOK A LOT of courage for John to resign his job as a diplomatic correspondent at the United Nations and start his career all over in his old home town. It took a lot of understanding on his wife's part to back him. But she did.

It wasn't easy. John spent two years on a novel that didn't quite come off, but, as he says, "may yet."

But in 1950 he began promoting "Unto these Hills," a pioneer outdoor drama of the Cherokee Indians that this year may draw its millionth spectator. On top of this and some magazine writing chores John started writing a column called "Roaming the Hills" for the Asheville Citizen.

—:—

IT SPREAD FASTER than the rhododendron does in June. A book of his collected vignettes of mountain people and old mountain customs recently sold out a first edition printing of 10,000 copies in a few weeks. More books are in prospect.

Everywhere John goes in the mountains he is recognized and welcomed. He purrs his cadillac 200 to 300 miles on an average day, and may ride through four rainbows. He never drove thrgough a single rainbow on his way to work at the United Nations.

Location Is Important In Choosing Apartment

MADISON, Wis. (INS) — Young marrieds looking for an apartment should consider the location of the apartment first.

So advises Kathryn Beach, associate professor of home economics at the University of Wisconsin. She said the apartment should be accessible to employment, churches, stores, markets and theaters.

Other things to consider, said Miss Beach, are services offered in each apartment, whether articles needed to furnish it can be used in future homes, and storage space — closets, shelves and cabinets.

Soviets Reveal Execution of 4 Aides to Beria

Azerbaijan Officials Accused of Treason And 'Terroristic Acts'

MOSCOW (AP)—The former prime minister of Azerbaijan and three other top officials of that Caucasian republic have been executed for treason and counter revolutionary activity, it was disclosed today

The four officials were accused of being accomplices of former Soviet police boss Lavrenty Beria

The newspaper Baku Worker, which reached Moscow today, said they had been charged with "terroristic acts"

The chief defendant in the trials which the newspaper said was held publicly in Baku between April 12 and April 26, was identified as M D Bagirov, former secretary of the Azerbaijan Communist party the chairman of the council of ministers of the Azerbaijan republic

Bagirov, long considered in the Soviet Union to be a close collaborator of Beria, fell a few weeks after Beria himself was arrested

On July 18, 1953 Moscow radio announced that he had been dismissed as premier of Azerbaijan The public announcement of his removal at that time did not connect him with Beria—but simply said he had been guilty of gross bureaucracy

The indictment as published in the Baku newspaper said Bagirov and his accomplices were guilty of treason of using improper methods of police investigation, of setting the state security organs against the government and the Communist party, and of counter revolutionary activity

There has been no word of the trial or execution in the Moscow press or over the radio

The other three men executed were state security officers.

Flood Threats In Illinois and Indiana Eased

Emergency Over at Indianapolis, Annual Speed Classic Still On

By The Associated Press

Dry, warm weather today hastened the recovery of flooded areas of Indiana and Illinois

A hot sun began to dry out the Speedway at Indianapolis — and thus assured the running of the 500 mile automobile race there Wednesday

Indianapolis was placed under a state of flood emergency Monday by Mayor Phillip L Bayt Officials called out more than 2,100 civil defense workers and ordered policemen to remain on duty

Hit by Torrential Rains

The flood troubles of Illinois and Indiana were caused by torrential rains during the weekend, and in some areas again on Monday

But the skies began to clear today The Weather Bureau said there was a chance of a few scattered thundershowers in both states, but no general downpours were in sight

More than 1,500 families were forced to evacuate their homes Monday in Indianapolis and surrounding Marion County after weekend rains of six to seven inches submerged much of the area Twenty one schools were closed as main highways blocked off the East and North Sides of the city at the height of the deluge

Drainage Begins

In central Illinois the overflow of the Sangamon River and Salt and Kickapoo creeks began a slow recession, permitting flood waters to drain from thousands of acres of rich farmland

Heavy weekend cloudbursts dumped as much as nine inches of rain on some sections, washing out highway bridges and undermining railroad tracks Swollen creeks led to the drownings of two Illinois children, a 12-year-old boy and a 15-year-old girl.

Farmer City, in DeWitt County, absorbed a nine inch fall while Fisher, in Champaign County, recorded eight The area hardest hit by the flood was 60 miles northeast of Springfield although a several county area felt the effects of heavy rain.

Rivers Recede

The Sangamon River was expected to unload the burden of its flood waters into Lake Decatur several miles downstream The Salt and Kickapoo creeks began receding Monday.

The flooded area escaped heavy rain late Monday but a 3½-hour thundershower dumped 3 09 inches on Peoria, some 35 miles northwest An official fall of five inches deluged Pekin, eight miles south of Peoria, causing three foot deep flood waters in the city s downtown district

Tornadoes flirted about three widely separated states Monday but caused only minor damage One twister knocked down trees at Ely, Iowa, while three others were sighted near Cedar Rapids

Another tornado hit Kress, Tex , in the Panhandle area and knocked out communications. No other damage was reported as the twister apparently spent itself in barren was eland Some 16 funnels were visible in parts of west-central Texas but they caused no damage

Two funnels appeared near Great Bend, Kan , but dissipated aloft Tornado warnings also had been issued for sections of New Mexico and Oklahoma departments the governor s traffic safety committee, churches, chambers of commerce and other groups, Mr Felty said

THE CAMPAIGN is sponsored by the National Conference of State Safety Coordinators, is endorsed by the governors of each of the 48 states, the commissioners of the district of Columbia and the territory of Puerto Rico

It also has the support of the governor s Conference, the National Safety Council, the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the American Legion, and a number of other organizations concerned with highw safety

Mr Felty said that all law enforcement agencies in Ohio have pledged full support to the campaign and to give special attention to speeders "Drivers in a hurry may expect no leniency," he said

The five "in-a-hurry" traffic violations which will receive special attention in Ohio are speeding, driving too fast for conditions, improper passing, following too closely, and failure to yield the right of way

According to National Safety Council records, nearly three out of every 10 drivers in fatal accidents were speeding, 18 out of 100 had been drinking seven out of 100 did not have the right of way three out of 100 disregarded a stop sign, two out of 100 disregarded warning signs and one out of 100 disregarded a signal or an officer

IN ADDITION to these human errors about six per cent of the cars involved in fatal accidents had one or more unsafe mechanical conditions, the council reported.

The traffic accident situation has been called a national emergency by the National Safety Council and while enforcement agency in Ohio will be on the outlook for violators this summer, the final responsibility lies with the driver himself, Mr Felty said

"The basic necessity is reasonable and safe driving Safety really begins — or may end — with the driver himself," he declared.

day, Kentucky voters chose their U S Senate and congressional nominees The Democratic primary offered a sharp factional fight

Backers of incumbent Sen Clements were opposed by Gov A B (Happy) Chandler and his forces, who are supporting former Rep Joe B Bates in the race for Clements' Senate seat.

3 In GOP Race

The winner of the Clements-Bates fight will oppose one of three Republicans seeking the Senate nomination — Thruston Morton, former assistant secretary of state, Julian Golden, and Granville Thomas

Neither Thomas nor a third Democratic contender in the Senate race the Rev James Delk, was considered a serious contender

In North Dakota, Republicans wound up a convention singing the praises of Eisenhower and his administration The 14 delegates and 14 alternates to the GOP National Convention are not formally instructed but there was no doubt they were in the Eisenhower corner

Colorado elected its first two delegates to the convention Monday Both said they are for Eisenhower and whoever he wants as a running mate The President already has more than enough delegates to assure renomination on the first ballot.

Pay Hikes

He said Mayor Ireland had requested that the salary be increased to $6 100 from its present $5 200 a year This was the salary established for the safety service director last year at the same time council voted to increase the salary of mayor to $6 500 a year effective Jan 1

Mr Haldeman noted last night that his committee also had made some changes in Mr Bigelow's request for the salary changes in the engineering department

Mr Bigelow had asked that the engineer s salary be raised to $6,500 a year the assistant engineer to $6 000 a year and the department draftsman to $4,200 a year

$6,500 a Year

The finance committee recommended that the engineer s salary be raised to $6,500 a year as requested by Mr Bigelow but that the assistant's and draftsman s salaries be raised by steps, Mr Haldeman said.

Under the committee plan, the assistant engineer would be paid $450 a month the first year of employment in the position, $475 a month the second year and $500 a month the third year, at which time he would be at the $6 000 a year salary requested by Mr Bigelow The committee plan for the draftsman is to pay him $325 a month the first year and $350 a month the second year

Mr Haldeman added that his committee studied the problem at a meeting Friday night and found that it was a matter either of raising the engineer's salaries or attempting to operate the city without an engineering department.

Emergency Cited

By the same token, his committee felt there currently is an emergency situation existing in the department and for this reason the ordinance establishing the new pay rates should be adopted as an emergency measure

He said that the committee had checked with other communities in the area and found that the proposed salary is not out of line and in fact still will be lower than the city of Delaware pays its engineer

Currently the Marion city engineer is paid $4,800 a year, his assistant receives $375 a month and his draftsman is paid $315 a month Because of the specialized training required to become an engineer and in view of the salaries paid them in other cities of Marion s size or smaller the committee concluded that the raises should be recommended, Mr Haldeman said

But, he continued, "before we can consider any raises for any other department, police, fire or otherwise, the city administration is going to have to present a plan for raising additional revenue for the city"

He indicated that without the additional funds no further raises for any city employes would be possible.

Zoning

He said that the city is now being attacked by a "creeping paralysis" because businesses are being allowed to operate in residential zones

"Eventually this disease will kill our town," he said.

Defends Commission

Defending the planning commission in its actions was Charles Morbitt, a member

He said that the commission only last year came to council with a proposal to rezone a portion of N State St and E Fairground Sts from residential to commercial and was turned down by council

He pointed out that the current rash of permissive use permits granted by the commission and sent to council for approval is to clean up a backlog of permits for such businesses which have been long established but have never obtained the permits

"When we have cleared up this backlog, I for one, will not vote to approve another application for permission to operate any business in any presently established residential zone" he said.

Expansion Necessary

But he warned that in so restricting businesses from other than the commercial and industrial districts, it likely is going to become necessary to expand these districts

The discussion on this point arose partly as a result of a proposal of the Ashland Oil Co to rezone a property at the southwest corner of Davids and Bennett Sts from residential to commercial

Presenting the case for the oil company was J C A Arter, local attorney He said the change of the zoning would not be detrimental to the property and that the oil company wished to erect a service station at the site which would actually add to the appearance of the neighborhood He said also that the zoning change would tend to raise the value of residential properties now located in the area

John Watters, attorney representing two adjoining property owners objecting to the zoning change, disagreed His clients had found that the value of their properties would be decreased by the proposed change and this would be unfair to them, Mr Watters said.

Sees Traffic Hazard

He argued that the filling station on the corner would add to an already existing driving hazard due to the heavy peak hour traffic on both streets and would tend to add to the traffic load

Mr Arter said service stations do not make traffic, that they merely locate where traffic already exists

Harold Fralich said he felt that the council should consider the objections of the property owners in the matter and R G Haldeman said he felt the whole matter deserved more study A vote was taken to send the matter to a committee and Councilmen Smith, Jenkins, Rinehart Williams and Fralich voted against it

John Courtright then called for a recess to "check the use maps in the mayor's office" and President Don Quantance granted 10 minutes

At the close of the recess John Corwin said "I object strenuously to the consideration of this rezoning at this time and move that the matter be tabled"

A vote was taken on Corwin's motion and those voting to table the matter were Williams Corwin, Courtright Lister and Haldeman

Attorneys for both the objectors and the Ashland Oil Co said they would return for the next meeting of council May 14 to reopen the discussion

The suggestion that the council and the planning commission meet to determine the exact boundaries of the residential, commercial and industrial zones and any enlargements of them which may be needed was made by Richard Lister

Should Get Together

He said that he felt that "we have come to the point where the planning commission and city council should get together and plan where the different zones are to be" He also suggested that any area to be changed from one zone to another should be given a number of years notice of this plan so as to protect present as well as future property owners

Harold Fralich said that it should be noted that no permissive use permits for businesses in residential zones have been turned down the last year. He said this must be changed if residential zones are to be protected as they should be by the city.

Permits Approved

The seven permissive use permits granted by the planning commission and approved by the council were as follows

Natale and Dominican Maniaci, a parking lot adjacent to their store which is located at 755 Silver St This was a new application for an addition planned to the store

David R and Ivaloo Hemmerly, operation of flower shop, long established at 229 E Fairground St

Mae Tucker, beauty parlor at her home at 420 N Greenwood St

Richard L Stanley, use of a small building at the rear of his property at 998 Woodrow Ave to sharpen lawn mowers

Leo C Houser, watch and clock repair shop in his residence at 792 Bennett St

Herman and Elizabeth Rech sale of postage stamps to collectors from their residence at 530 Mound St

Merrill B King, general photography business at his residence at 390 Monroe St

Farm

Nevertheless, soil bank money could be made Available to a relatively large acreage if Benson offered liberal conditions If he should limit participation this year to land intended for cotton, wheat, peanuts, rice, tobacco and corn but not yet planted, the participation would be limited and the total payments small

But should he permit farmers to plow up a part of the land planted to these crops—as he has authority to do—the participation could be relatively large and the payments substantial

Reluctant on Move

It is known that Benson is reluctant to offer payments for plowing up crops lest such action draw consumer complaints and lest it do little toward cutting production of surplus crops, which is the prime goal of the program

Based upon inquiries reaching the department, officials believe that most farmers would be willing to plow up only land which already is destined to crop failure because of adverse weather Hence, they say, offer of payments on such land would gain little toward a net cut in production

The only other portions of the new law certain to affect farmers directly this crop year are provisions raising price supports for feed grains—oats, rye, barley and grain sorghum — from the previously announced 70 per cent of parity to 76 per cent and corn outside a designated commercial area from 75 to 82½ per cent of parity Parity is a calculated price said to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

Will Raise Supports

These changes will raise supports from 59 to about 65 cents a bushel for oats, from 93 cents to about $1 03 for barley from $1 16 to about $1 27 for rye, from $1 80 to about $1 97 a hundred pounds for grain sorghums, and from an average of about $1 23 to about $1 35 for corn outside the commercial area

A third provision which could be of benefit this year is one adding 500 million dollars to an existing fund of about 400 million dollars for support of prices of perishable products, such as hogs, cattle, poultry, eggs, fruit and vegetables Thus money may be used to buy and remove surplus supplies from markets when prices sag

Vinson Honored By Centre College

DANVILLE, Ky (AP) — A shy but determined young man who was later to become chief justice of the United States once begged officials of Centre College to enroll him for the senior year of his pre-law studies

Fred M Vinson arrived at Centre in 1908 from a small non-accredited junior college in the foothills of Eastern Kentucky His credits didn t measure up to Centre s standards and his funds were limited, but officials admitted young Vinson after he vowed to lead in his class studies if they'd let him in

Vinson kept his word and made a scholastic standing perhaps as high as any ever attained at the 137 year-old Presbyterian - supported college His grades averaged 98

Later in life, the chief justice explained that 'as a jailer's son from the foothills, I was painfully shy and suspicious of anyone who wasn t kin to me" At Centre, he said, "I learned to love and enjoy people Without that life is pretty empty and vain"

Now Centre is preparing to establish a $300 000 Vinson Memorial Foundation, which will provide a Vinson Professorship, Lectureship and Vinson Memorial Scholarships

Air 'Crash' Probably Speeding Jet Aircraft

Investigation of a report of a loud explosion south of Marion and near Prospect early today by the highway patrol revealed nothing amiss, according to patrolmen.

Residents in the area were understood to have believed a plane crashed, causing the explosion. However, after checking, the patrol drew the conclusion a jet plane had broken the sound barrier, an occurrence which always creates a loud noise

Patrolmen said, that they received a report that a woman living seven miles south of Marion had heard a loud explosion and had seen smoke from an airplane that had just gone overhead.

No evidence of a plane crash was found, in any event.

Autos in Collision Near Cardington

Failure to yield the right of way was a charge brought by highway patrolmen from the Marion post against Frank A. Irwin, 81, of Mount Gilead after he was involved in an automobile accident Monday at 2:25 p.m. four-tenths of a mile north of Cardington on U. S. Route 42.

Irwin was cited to appear before Mayor Don Healea of Cardington June 4 on the charge.

Patrolmen said that Irwin had been parked on the west side of Route 42 headed north, and had pulled out onto the highway into the path of an oncoming car, headed south, driven by Harold J Kuehner, 54, of near Marion.

Irwin told investigating officers that he had seen the oncoming car, but had believed he had time to get out of its path.

Injured in the collision was Mason M. Maxwell, 69, of Cardington, a passenger in Kuehner's car who sustained knee bruises and a possible neck injury.

Gromek, Boone, Kennedy Gang Up on Cleveland

Score Handed 4th Defeat; Chisox Slated Wednesday

CLEVELAND (AP)—Three Detroit Tigers who played most of their past major league careers for Cleveland ganged up on the Tribe last night.

Pitcher Steve Gromek, third baseman Ray Boone and outfielder Bob Kennedy were the key men in the 3-1 Detroit victory which dropped the Indians another game behind the New York Yankees.

Gromek, with the Tribe 11 seasons until 1953, doled out six hits, three of them to the first three batters he faced. Jim Busby tripled and Bob Avila and Al Smith singled to produce a first-inning Cleveland run

Boone, who spent six seasons with the Indians up to 1953, collected three of the Tigers' eight hits, including his seventh home run of the season. His homer in the sixth was the last Tiger run and his fourth-inning single was part of a rally that accounted for the other two runs off Herb Score.

The loss was Score's fourth against five won. Gromek has a 3-3 mark.

The Indians are idle today and meet the Chicago White Sox in a Memorial Day double header Wednesday before leaving on a two-week swing through the east.

Rosen Learns Viewpoints of Indians' Fans

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's injured third baseman, Al Rosen, whose rough treatment by boo-bird fans sent Manager Al Lopez's blood pressure up 10 days ago, says he knows now "why the fans get burned up at me when I leave men on base."

Rosen, out with a damaged right knee, has followed the Tribe on radio and television. He watched every inning of the seven-hour, 38-minute doubleheader in Chicago Sunday.

One of the things Rosen said he learned was how the fans who booed him must have felt when he left nine men stranded on the bases in the game in which he was injured. Lopez berated Cleveland fans for cheering when a base runner knocked Rosen down in the last inning of that game.

Getting burned up is "the natural thing to do," said Rosen. "I got burned up myself watching our guys leave 'em on."

Bosox Hurling Top Problem For Manager

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Mike Higgins of the Boston Red Sox acknowledged today his biggest disappointment—aside from Ted Williams' inability to play because of a foot injury—has been the decline of the pitching staff.

Higgins tried hard not to appear too concerned over his club's snail-like pace that had them a poor third, 6½ games behind the front-running New York Yankees. But it was obvious he was plenty worried.

"Our pitching is thin and hurting," he said after the Red Sox had absorbed a 2-0 defeat Monday night, the fifth in six games with the Yankees this season. "It's not anywhere near as good as it looked during spring training and early in the season."

New Mark Expected in 500 Classic

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Four former winners of the Memorial Day 500-mile auto race predicted today that Wednesday's 40th running of the event will produce a record several miles an hour faster than the late Bill Vukovich's 1954 mark of 130.84.

The prediction looked sound, in view of the fact that 15 drivers in the 33-car field qualified their cars at speeds above the previous Indianapolis Speedway record for the 10-mile trials.

Bob Sweikert of Indianapolis, last year's winner after Vukovich was killed in a four-car crash while leading the race, said it might take 136 m.p.h. to win.

Holland Agrees

Bill Holland of Indianapolis, the 1949 winner, also figured it would take a 135 or 136 m.p.h. pace.

Johnnie Parsons of Van Nuys, Calif., 1950 winner, said he was counting on a 135-plus pace and Troy Ruttman, 1952 winner, said it would take over 134.5 to win.

These experts represent all the winners since 1949 except Vukovich, the 1953 and 1954 champion.

Ruttman, Parsons and Sweikert are in Wednesday's field and all are rated as strong contenders. Ruttman has the Kurtis-Kraft in which Sweikert won last year.

Parsons, who qualified at 144.144 m.p.h. has a new Kuzma racer owned by promoter J.C. Agajanian of San Pedro, Calif.

Sweikert will drive another new Kuzma entered by an Indianapolis racing group.

The former winners had to yield qualifying honors to three veteran drivers who pushed the 10-mile speed above 145 m.p.h. for the first time. Pat Flaherty of Chicago set the record at 145.596. Johnny Thompson of Springfield, Mass., did 145.549 and Jim Rathmann of Miami, 145.120.

The field averaged 142.507 in the trials, compared with last year's 138.796, a record up to that time. Credit for most of the increase went to a new rock asphalt surface on all of the 2½ mile track except .8 of a mile on the west straightaway.

Flash Flood Hits

A flash flood from three days of rain sent rivulets trickling across the track Monday from a normally small creek that runs under the south end of the track. The water receded rapidly late in the day.

Officials decided the wet spots made the track too hazardous for any further qualifying attempts and 12 drivers were left at the line.

Vessels Ready For Crack at Colt Backfield

CLEVELAND, Okla. (AP)—Billy Vessels, who was named "best" in college, Canadian pro and service football, will be a rookie in the National League this year—and he's afraid he won't make the team.

The former All-America halfback will join the Baltimore Colts in July after a 2-year hitch in the Army. He was discharged last week at Ft. Sill, Okla., and then visited his hometown here.

"It sounds kind of funny to be classified a rookie again, but I welcome the opportunity to get in those early practice licks," he said in an interview. "I'm going to have to work harder than I've ever worked in my life to get into condition.

"I'm further out of condition than I've ever been in my life, but I'm going to start working on my own early next month. It's going to be tough to make the Colt backfield because they have some great boys."

A grand slam home run in the fifth inning by Jim Longacre gave Caledonia a 10-8 win over Claridon in first round action on the Marion County Baseball League last night at Prospect Park.

Claridon had scored three in the second and four in the fourth to lead most of the way. The Donians picked up a single tally in the opening stanza and pushed over five in the fourth to trail 7-6 before Longacre's game - winning smash.

The game was called after six innings because of a 10:30 curfew.

Ronnie Rice was on the mound for Claridon with Fields handling the catching chores. Gary Chappell went the route for the winning team with Doug Cochran behind the plate.

Cubs Defeat Cincinnati, Joe Nuxhall

CHICAGO (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs are having another "sinking spell" in their hitting. It's almost identical to the one they suffered two weeks ago and if Pittsburgh hadn't beaten Brooklyn last night the Reds would have sunk right into the National League's second division.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts' supposedly potent sluggers could manage only three hits Monday as they dropped a 4-1 decision to the Chicago Cubs.

In the last three games—all defeats—the Redlegs have scored only 4 runs on 19 hits. Two weeks ago during a similar three-game slump, the Rhinelanders scored only 3 times on 24 hits.

And it was Milwaukee's league leading Braves who started both tailspins.

Along with lack of hitting, there was another discouraging factor Monday for Tebbetts — another failure by pitcher Joe Nuxhall. Nuxhall lasted only until the fifth inning and he gave up all of the Cub runs although two were unearned.

Cincinnati's only run had come in the third on Roy McMillan's triple to right center and Nuxhall's sacrifice fly. After that the Reds didn't get another hit until McMillan singled in the eighth. The fiinal Redleg hit was Frank Robinson's single in the ninth.

Brooks Lawrence was to be given the job today of trying to pitch the Reds out of their slump. He was due to be opposed by Sam Jones, who hasn't pitched a complete game since he beat Cincinnati on April 20.

Alloy widened its first place lead in Pony League action at Lincoln Park Monday night.

The Steelmen, with Dee Whetro on the hill, whipped VFW 7-1 for their third straight triumph. Alloy now shows a two-game bulge over the rest of the loop.

Clark Metal, behind Harl Evans, blanked G & G Homes 12-0 in last night's opener.

VFW was held to a lone run in the second and only three hits by Whetro as Alloy remained unbeaten. Whetro struck out seven while walking two.

Flesher and Ansley hurled for the losers, giving up only six hits, fanning six and walking six. Nine errros by VFW also aided the winners.

Creviston and Bosh had two hits for the winners.

Three runs in the first frame on four hits enabled Evans to coast to a three-hit job over G & G in the opener. Evans fanned 13 and walked none.

Two markers in the fifth and seven in the sixth, on only one hit, concluded Alloy's scoring. Craft and Saunders worked on the hill for G & G, allowing 10 hits, fanning three, walking one and hitting two batsmen. Six errors were made behind them.

Evans pounded out three hits while Myers and Klahm both had two for the winners. Saunders hit safetly twice for G & G.

Long Smacks One for Fans In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"I got chills all over. It was bigger than the one in Philadelphia. I am glad it happened in Pittsburgh for the people who deserve it."

Dale Long, who threatens to out-Mantle Mickey Mantle, stood in the Pittsburgh clubhouse after Monday night's 3-2 victory over Brooklyn. He was doing his best to tell how it felt to hit his eighth home run in eight games, breaking the major league record he set Saturday in Philadelphia.

"Have you got any left?" somebody asked.

"Who cares as long as we keep on winning," he replied.

Did you ever see a bunch of kids like this? They just keep bouncing back when they're supposed to be knocked out.

"At first I didn't think it was going in (the ball just did make the right field stands, about 375 feet from the plate.) I just put my head down and ran. When I passed Bobby Bragan (Pirate manager) at third, I just shook my head because it was hard to believe. But the big thing was what happened next."

After Long trundled home with his 14th homer and disappeared into the gloomy confines of the dugout, the roaring crowd of 32,221 stopped the show. They wouldn't let the game continue until Long took a bow. They cheered wildly without a letup while Carl Erskine, Brooklyn pitcher, tried to throw to Frank Thomas.

Finally, Long popped his head out of the dugout, doffed his cap and waved to the frantic customers who are beginning to talk about Long, not Mantle, breaking Babe Ruth's record.

Layminster carried only 84 pounds when he won the 1910 running of the Preakness Stakes.

Cardinals Stopped

Bob Friend Posts Eighth As Pirates Sink Dodgers

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

This, in case you hadn't noticed, is a brand new year in the National League.

A year ago, the NL went into the Memorial Day milepost strung out behind Brooklyn, with the Dodgers enjoying a six-game bulge and St.Louis and Milwaukee 11 games back. Pittsburgh, going through its regular pantomime, was 18 games to the rear and in the cellar.

That was last year. Right now Milwaukee is winning what has been a two-way scrap for the lead with St. Louis, while the Pirates are just a game back.

And where's Brooklyn? Three games back in fifth.

Milwaukee blasted the Cardinals 10-3 Monday night, thus removing a screwy predicament that had them a length short in the "games behind" column but still in first. Pittsburgh made it cozy by nudging the Brooks 3-2 — with Bob Friend winning his eighth on a two-hitter and Dale Long hitting his eighth home run in eight games to better his major league record set Saturday

Bob Rush's three-hitter tripped Cincinnati as the Chicago Cubs won 4-1. Philadelphia kept the road rocky for New York by beating the Giants 5-2.

Yankees Win 2-0

In the American League, the race has the look of a romp. The New York Yankees grabbed a 4½-game lead, beating Boston 2-0 as Whitey Ford gained his seventh triumph and second shutout while the runner-up Cleveland Indians lost to Detroit 3-1. Kansas City dumped Chicago's White Sox 6-4, on a two-run homer by Enos Slaughter in the ninth, and Baltimore clipped Washington 6-5 in 10 innings.

The only hits off Friend, who has lost two, were a first-inning homer by Duke Snider and a one-out single by Junior Gilliam in the third. Carl Erskine was the loser.

Bobby Thomson and Del Crandall homered for the Braves, who had a 6-0 lead in two frames to chase Herm Wehmeier. Gene Conley, in relief of Lou Sleater, was the winner.

Harvey Haddix, with ace Robin Roberts relieving in the eighth, won his first for the Phils.

Ford Tops Sullivan

Roy McMillan got two hits off Rush, who fanned seven and walked one, and scored a run that stood up until the fifth. Then the Cubs racked Joe Nuxhall for four runs — two on a bases-loaded double by Ernie Banks.

Ford, in trouble only twice, scattered five Boston hits while the Yanks made the most of four singles off Frank Sullivan. Two in the first and an infield out by Yogi Berra, back from an eight-game stay on the injury list, scored one run. Two errors by shortstop Don Buddin helped the other across in the fourth.

Steve Gromek six-hit the Indians while the Tigers got two runs in the fifth on Bob Kennedy's ground-rule double and a force-out to hand Herb Score his fourth defeat.

The White Sox blew a 2-0 lead as Kansas City scored four in the eighth with homers by Gus Zernial and Jim Finigan. They tied it with two in the top of the ninth. Billy Pierce went in as a reliefer in the bottom of the ninth. He walked a man and then came Slaughter.

Reliefer Mike Fornieles doubled in the 10th and came home with the clincher for the Orioles on Chuck Diering's single.

Toledo Fighter Stops Giardello

NEW YORK (AP)—Charley (King) Cotton had his second straight victory over Joey Giardello, a reputation, and a few offers against more "name" fighters today.

"The breaks are finally coming my way," said the happy, 26-year-old ex-Marine from Toledo, Ohio. "I don't care how close the officials call 'em as long as they have me ahead. Of course knocking 'em out makes it a whole lot easier."

The officials gave Cotton a split-decision edge over Giardello in their bruising 10-round telecast tussle at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night. Cotton was an 8-5 underdog despite his close but unanimous triumph over the onetime top-ranking middleweight contender in the same arena three weeks ago.

Victory brought Cotton offers for a July 9 date against either unbeaten Rory Calhoun or Gil Turner for the St.Nicks, a possible engagement for Madison Square Garden and a June 19 bid for Toledo, Ohio.

Cotton, outweighed 160 to 154, made the fight against the counter only in the first round that Joey, 25, fought a full three minutes and looked like the fighter who almost got a middleweight title shot a year ago.

Housewife Uncovers Grid Payments at Southern Cal

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The detective work of a housewife is credited with disclosing reported over-the-limit payments to University of Southern California athletes

Mrs Adele Erenberg said Monday she found out about the Southern California Educational Foundation fund because she wanted to join the foundation "to help our schools in some way" She is a PTA worker and the mother of two pre-college children

Her findings were turned over to Dep Dist Atty J Miller Leavy, a UCLA alumnus who announced last week the USC boosters had been helping athletes

Previously the Pacific Coast Conference had handed UCLA a three year probation and heavy fine for aid to athletes exceeding the $75 monthly allowed by the conference

Acts After Crackdown

Mrs Erenberg said she had known about the foundation for nearly three years but didn't do anything about it until the crackdown on UCLA

"That was an unjust, discriminatory thing" she said

She told Mirror-News Sports Writer Jack Tobin she found out about the foundation when State Assemblyman Joe Shell, a Los Angeles Republican, listed it as one of his activities in a 1953 election brochure

'Mr Snell listed his affiliations as being a former SC football captain, past president of the Trojan Club and trustee of the Southern California Educational Foundation' she said

I'd heard of the citizens for the public schools but never of this foundation I wanted to join or help in some way Telephone information had no listing so I called Mr Shell's campaign headquarters

"When I explained I wanted information on the foundation, he told me it was founded on the campus at SC to help students who could not continue to go without assistance

'After a few minutes he became evasive His answers didn't add up He talked almost an hour That arouse my curiosity. It wasn't that important He overemphasized his interest so much I wouldn't let it drop"

She called the university next she said and learned from Alumni Secretary Bob Monnish another ex-SC gridder, that the organization was not connected with the campus McNeish became agitated, she said, and had Shell call her back

She told Shell since it was a nonprofit foundation and its records were in the public domain she planned to find out more about it

Next day she called at the internal revenue office and was permitted to look at the foundation's 1951-52-53 returns.

Girl on List

"I wasn't a sports fan and the names on the disbursement schedule meant nothing to me," she said "I remember the first name was Carmichael and he had received $650 I looked the list over and would have returned it without another thought until the last name It was a girl The only girl and she got only $15"

She asked the clerk if the names on the list meant anything to him He laughed and said, "You are now reading the list of the entire SC varsity football team' Who the girl was, she never learned

Mrs Erenberg said she "didn't want to get any student in trouble" but copied the file number and all information she wanted about the returns

She said the offered the material to Shell's assembly opponent that year but he declined to use it Shell was elected and Mrs Erenberg forgot about the foundation until the PCC rapped UCLA

She then tried to call UCLA Coach Red Sanders and left her name and number with his secretary Her call was returned by Bob Fischer, executive manager of the Young Men's Club of Westwood, a Bruin booster group

Fischer took her information and relayed it to Leavy.

Mrs Erenberg, whose husband attended the University of Chicago is not a UCLA graduate She left school after graduating from Hollywood High

Assemblyman Shell said he couldn't recall any conversations with Mrs Erenberg, adding 'I get all kinds of calls, as any man in public life does"

He said he never had tried to hide his membership in the foundation because he thought it was a worthwhile organization.

Voting Slated For Senate on Highway Bill

Controversy Erupts Over Apportioning of Government's Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate reaches the voting stage today on the mammoth highway construction bill which would inaugurate the biggest peacetime public works program in the nation's history.

Passage of the bill was expected by afternoon or night. Afterwards, the bill must go to a conference with the House to work out a compromise version.

As passed by the House, the bill calls for 51½ billion dollars in federal-state road construction over a 13-year period.

Calls For $37 Billion

The measure before the Senate would authorize 37 billions in federal-state outlays. It provides for a 13-year program to develop a 40,000-mile interstate system equipped to handle up-to-date traffic. Spending for the other three federal aid systems — primary, farm-to-market and urban—would be authorized only five years ahead.

The House measure would provide about $14,800,000,000 in new highway user taxes over 16 years to help pay for the program. The Senate version would cut this down to $14,500,000,000.

Gas Tax Hike

Both bills call for a penny-a-gallon boost in the present 2-cent federal gas tax, as well as increases in taxes on tires, trucks and the like. In most cases, the Senate and House tax provisions are identical, and thus will not be subject to change in conference later.

Sharp controversy broke out in the Senate Monday over how to apportion the federal money among the states. Other issues that produced differences involved the question of federal determination of wage rates on the interstate system, and a "pay as you build" amendment

Interstate Network

The 40,000-mile interstate system, contemplated as a modernized network connecting the nation's principal cities, is the main feature of the bill.

It would be allotted 25 billions in federal money in both House and Senate versions. Uncle Sam would put up nine dollars to every one furnished by the states.

Most of the argument Monday was about how to divide this money among the states.

The House bill would distribute the money on the basis of the needs of the states as they reported them to the Bureau of Public Roads.

The Senate bill continues the formula in present law for the interstate system. It gives two-thirds weight to the population of a state, one sixth to is area, one sixth to its road mileage.

Opponents of the House plan said the described needs actually were "wild guesstimates" for which they contended each state used a different method of computation. Foes of the Senate bill arrangement said it would never complete the interstate system, and that some states would get too much under it while others would get too little.

Kentucky Vote Due on Bitter Senate Battle

Democrats Divided In Contest Between Clements and Bates

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky voters today chose their U.S. senatorial and congressional nominees in primary elections that found the dominant Democratic party sharply divided.

A quiet Republican race contrasted sharply to the bitterly fought Democratic struggle involving factions of incumbent U.S. Sen. Earle C. Clements and Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Clements Opposed

Clements, assistant majority leader, was opposed by Joe B. Bates, a hand-picked Chandler candidate in the primary.

Polls opened at 6 a.m. and closed at 5 p.m. (local time). Under state law ballots may be counted until midnight. Counting may continue Wednesday but because of the Memorial Day holiday only a few counties have indicated plans to do so.

The state has 120 counties with 4,042 precincts.

This election marked the first time persons under 21 were permitted to vote and the first primary election under a 1956 law which moved the primary up from August. Last year the state changed its constitution to lower the voting age from 21 to 18 years.

Could Affect Later Race

The Democratic primary outcome could have a bearing on the choice of a Democratic nominee to run in the Nov. 6 election for the remaining four years of the late Sen. Alben W. Barkley's term. Barkley died April 30.

Both sides expect a fairly large turnout.

The Republican candidates seeking to oppose the victor of the Clements-Bates race were Thruston Morton, former assistant secretary of state; Julian Golden, former attorney for the National Park Service in Washington and Granville Thomas.

The Rev. James Delk, Frankfort, the other candidate for the Democratic senatorial nomination, was not considered a serious threat.

All eight Kentucky U.S. representatives—six Democrats and two Republicans—were seeking renomination. But only six had primary opposition.

Teaching in Home Urged by Expert

STILLWATER, Okla. (UP) — Learning, like charity, should begin at home, Dr. Robert MacVicar, dean of the graduate school at Oklahoma A. & M. College, believes.

MacVicar said he is convinced that failure on the part of students to show a genuine interest in learning can be attributed largely to early training in his home.

"Our educational system today is in need of more money, more and better teachers and expanded physical facilities," MacVicar said. "But an even more important need is one the students themselves must supply—a genuine interest in learning.

"In too many instances, the efforts of good teachers are poorly received. It's like 'leading a horse to water.'

"The place to begin corrective measures is, logically, where the problem got its start—in the American home."

Stone Enters Not Guilty Plea

Counsel Appointed For Four Defendants

Elwood Stone, indicted by the Marion County grand jury Friday on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, pleaded not guilty to the charge at his arraignment in Common Pleas Court this morning, and was released after posting a $1,000 bond. He did not appear in court Monday when eight others were arraigned, because his counsel, Carter Patton, was out of town.

The court appointed the following attorneys to represent four men who appeared at the arraignment Monday without benefit of counsel: Frank W. Phillips, to represent Robert S. Colley, charged with armed robbery; Robert Kelly, to represent Dorrance William Clark, two counts of shooting with intent to kill; and J. C. A. Arter to represent Gilbert Saunders, two counts of breaking and entering.

Claim Valid, State Still Refuses To Honor Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—For 18 years, a state mine inspector paid the premiums on his official bond because he didn't know the Arkansas treasurer was supposed to do it.

After his retirement, J. W. Fitzgerald discovered his error and filed a claim for a $360 refund. The state Claims Commission agreed that his claim was valid, but imposed the five-year statute of limitations on back payments and sent him a check for $100 marked "paid in full."

MODERN RUSTLING

BRAZIL, Ind. (UP) — Rustlers stole three Hereford cows from the Luther Steele farm. There were two innovations over rustling in the "old West"—these rustlers also took five bales of hay to feed the animals and carted it all off in a truck.

Traffic Cases

James J. Merchant, 24, of 473 Park Blvd., $100 and costs, five days in the county jail, three years' suspension of driving rights, driving while intoxicated.

Speeding: Clarence E. Stephens, 20, of Peach Creek, W. Va., forfeited $50 bond; Robert C. Voltz, 38, of near Marysville, $15 and costs; Elmore F. Thieken, 26, of the Lido Apartments, $15 and costs; W. T. Mitchell, 33, of Ostrander, $15 and costs.

Illegal parking: George W. Coberly, 23, of near Marion, $15 and costs; Phillip Blanton, 19, of near Waldo, $15 and costs; Neil E. Dawson, 29, of 687 Kenton Ave., $10 and costs.

Insufficient muffler: Denzil Blanton, 23, of 326 Cherry St., $10 and costs; Harold L. Spicer, 20, of 787 York St., $10 and costs; David D. Robinson, 20, of 21 Copeland Ave., $10 and costs.

Miscellaneous: Steve Lanier, 49, of 224 Senate St., no operator's license, $15 and costs; Alamander Tuttle, 47, of Bevinsville, Ky., no mud flaps, $15 and costs; James E. Currier, 41, of near Marengo, reckless operation, $15 and costs; Donald H. Murphy, 48, of Columbus, giving false information for registration, $10 and costs.

Charge dismissed: driving under revocation of license against Orville Berry, 48, of Cleveland, dismissed on motion of police prosecutor.

Investigators Seeking Cause Of Fatal Crash

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Red lights flashed at the crossing, the diesel locomotive's horn sounded, but the big tractor-trailer rolled onto the grade crossing and into the side of the speeding engine. Why?

That's what Portage County sheriff's deputies and state highway patrolmen asked today in a follow-up investigation of a spectacular wreck in which three men were killed Monday at nearby Atwater.

Andrew Nappi, 27, of Akron, who drove the truck, was one of the dead.

Did the morning sun blind the eastbound driver so he could not see the warning lights? That was a point police were checking. The driver of a rig following Nappi's said he saw the signal flashing danger.

Was Nappi unable to stop at the grade crossing of Ohio 224, or was he unaware of the crossing until much too late? The answer probably died with him.

The smash-up involved the passenger train "the steeler" which runs from Pittsburgh to Cleveland. It collided first with the truck and then with the two-story frame feed mill of the Portage County Farm Bureau alongside the tracks.

The other two killed were a brakeman, Arthur J. Fisher, 45, of Pittsburgh, who was in one of the train's coaches, and a farmer, Charles E. Fouser, 41, who was in the building.

Traffic on the Pennsylvania railroad's main line between Pittsburgh and Cleveland was back to normal early today, some 14 hours after the wreck.

Only one of seven injured persons remained in a hospital here overnight—F. Kermit Donaldson, 55, of Alliance, executive secretary of the Steel Foundries Society of America. Donaldson, who said he has been in five train accidents in recent years, was under treatment for shock.

The American jumping mouse can leap about 10 feet.

14 California Students In Panty Raid Penalized

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Fourteen University of California students who joined in riotous panty raids May 16 have been stuck with penalties ranging from dismissal to censure.

Dismissal was recommended for ten students and half-year suspensions for two. Two seniors were removed from the graduation list.

Officials estimated $10,000 damage to women's dorms and clothing. Two thousand men joined in the night raid.

Tongay Ruled Insane After Florida Tests

RAIFORD, Fla. (AP)—Russell Tongay has been ruled insane and will be transferred from state prison to the Florida State Hospital.

The former Miami swimming instructor, serving 10 years for the death of his 5-year-old Aquatot daughter Kathy, is a maniac-depressive with suicidal tendencies, according to the order committing him to the hospital.

County Judge S. B. Brooks signed the order Wednesday after a sanity hearing suggested by Gov. Leroy Collins. The news did not become known until Monday.

Warden DeWitt Sinclair said Tongay, now 39, has been a "very troublesome prisoner" since being confined at state prison after his conviction on manslaughter at Miami in 1954.

Tongay, a former Coast Guardsman, was convicted on a charge that he forced Kathy to make a 33-foot dive that fatally injured her. Kathy and her brother Bubba performed at swimming exhibitions over the country under the billing "Aquatots."

Sentenced to Life

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — Joseph Henderson, 46, of Portsmouth, was sentenced Monday to life imprisonment in Ohio Penitentiary for the hammer slaying here of McKinley Mitchell, 54, last Feb. 10.

Henderson changed his plea from innocent to a first degree murder charge to guilty to a second degree charge.

Southern Baptists Dubious on Aid to Church Hospitals

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Southern Baptist Convention leaders debated today whether to recommend that the organization refuse to accept federal funds for hospital construction.

The Rev. Henry Lyons of Montgomery, Ala., backer of the movement, told the SBC Executive Committee acceptance of such aid would infringe the denomination's long-standing policy of complete separation of church and state.

Federal aid is provided on a matching basis under the 1946 Hill-Burton Act for construction of hospitals and health centers by nonprofit organizations and state or local governments.

The SBC already has on the agenda of its four-day meeting opening Wednesday a proposal that it construct a two-million-dollar hospital at Miami, Fla. It now owns and operates hospitals at Jacksonville, Fla., and New Orleans, La.

2 Inmates Saw Way Out Of Monroe County Jail

WOODSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Two inmates of the Monroe County Jail escaped early today after using a home-made saw to remove a bar from a cell window.

Sheriff's deputies said Alfred Mellott, 22, of Clarington, held as a parole violator, and Paul Eickleberry, 24, held on petty larceny charges, made a saw out of a knife blade. They fled about 3 a.m., but the escape was not discovered until about 5 a.m.

See what happens... Switch to Shell!

Before TCP... The car above was bought brand new and driven about 3000 miles on a competitive premium gasoline. Then its rate of acceleration was checked by radar. The pick-up was poor because of engine deposits, which caused the spark plugs to "miss."

After TCP... The same car now performs after it has been run on a few tankfuls of Shell Premium with TCP*, which overcomes engine deposits. Radar checks on this and other cars showed in most cases a 6 to 18% increase in pick-up after TCP had overcome pre-firing and spark plug "miss."

Radar proves you can get up to 18% faster "pick-up" with Shell Premium with TCP

Today's high-powered, high-compression engines are really rarin' to go, but they're especially sensitive to engine deposits.

Within about 3500 miles these deposits can short-circuit your spark plugs—causing them to "miss." The result: power loss. Your almost new engine has lost its fine edge.

The picture above of a radar-clocked acceleration test shows how TCP additive restores this lost power, delivering up to 18% faster acceleration—"pick-up" that even the most careful driver sometimes needs for safety.

Try Shell Premium with TCP and re-power your car while you drive. See your Shell Dealer.

*Shell's Trademark for this unique gasoline additive developed by Shell Research, Patent applied for.
